Preparations for Lent and Easter Seasons: Chanting the Universal Prayers

We have begun to prepare for our Lenten, Holy Week and Easter liturgies. In an effort to set these seasons apart from Ordinary Time liturgies, Andy will be chanting the Universal Prayers (Prayers of the Faithful) during Lent, Holy Week, and the Easter Season. This change represents the heightened worship we experience during these seasons. My hope is that you will embrace this change in our prayer and find yourselves drawn deeper in the encounter! [Lectors please note: You will only need to prepare the readings for the weekend liturgies.]

Thoughts on Evangelization: Stepping Into the Open Door

Review the conversations that you have had over the past few weeks. Has anyone asked you to tell him or her about Jesus? Probably not ~ in those words. But haven't you heard recently, "I don't know what I'm going to do about...?" "Sometimes I have fears and worries about..." "There are days when I wonder if it's all worth it." In saying these things people are opening their lives. And not just to have you see a struggle. They are looking for a way out or looking for strength in the middle of their pain. They are telling you these things because they think you have an answer. And you do! After listening and offering support, why not point them to Jesus whom you know can provide the hope, life, peace and meaning for which they are looking. ©2001, David Thorpe

Canticum Novum – Share Your Bread

What brings the light to our Christian lives? The readings for this Sunday give us a great wealth of wisdom to rely on. Sharing our bread with the hungry is the first advice we get. Recognizing hunger in our own. Seeing their hunger as our opportunity to become a light in the darkness. This is a priority for all of those who are nourished by the Eucharist. Catholics who are dedicated to the Eucharist develop a particular charisma for the poor and the hungry. They understand the call. They feed, shelter, and clothe those who cannot do it for themselves. In that caring spirit the people of God enjoy the favor of God. Oppression is removed from their midst. Gone is discontent and division. Their light shines. What this means during this time of division and disparity is for each to consider personally, and for each to bring forth the kingdom as people of God. I enjoy the opportunity to give to the capuchin mission at St. Bonaventure to help combat hunger, homelessness, and to help clothe those in need. The parish has many ways for us to help. See Debbie Mazur in Christian service to get involved personally, financially, or both.

Parish finances: Fr. Jerry gave a very positive reporting of where St. Jane Frances stands financially. I was surprised to hear that more families do not take advantage of online giving. It's fast and easy to set up, and it provides the parish regular contributions... and you will no longer worry about forgetting your envelope. I am an online giver. I hope you will consider joining me, especially if you are not currently giving. The Lord loves a happy giver and blesses their gift seven times seven-fold!

Anniversary Mass Saturday, February 11th: We will be joining with all those who are celebrating wedding anniversaries in the Parish. There is a spaghetti dinner hosted by the Knights of Columbus afterward, in the Parish Hall. I hope you will consider joining with all those celebrating for Mass and dinner afterward. I have planned some special music to enrich our prayer that evening.

Music needs: singers for choir, instrumentalists to make beautiful music with, lovely children's voices to help our future programs flourish, strong hands for ringing hand bells.

Prayerfully,
Andy

Vacation Bible School

It is that time of year! We are beginning to look to the summer, and plan for this year's Vacation Bible School program. There are a bunch of volunteer spots that will be available this summer. If you have time to help, the week of June 26th through 30th, drop us a line and let us know.

Email us at FaithFormation.sjf@gmail.com, in the subject line, type: VBS Volunteer.

We'll just need to know your name, the grade you'll be going into in the fall (if you still in school), and your contact information.

This will be a good start! When meetings come up and the leaders need to contact you, we will have everything we need to get a hold of you!

Sunday Evening High School Gathering

This weekend (February 5th) is Superbowl Sunday.

Since most people will be at home watching "the game" we will not be meeting on this evening.

We WILL return next Sunday, February 12th, at our normal time from 6:00pm - 8:30pm at Door #4 in the Fr. Leon Page Activity Center. Grab a friend, bring them along, and join us for a fun evening!

Prayers for our students...

Many of us, myself included, get wrapped up in all that we do on a daily basis. My stresses, my fears, my successes are what "I" focus on, but there is a whole new generation being raised right now, that is ready to learn, ready to listen, ready to lead and ready to change the world.

While I was away last weekend, in between working, I walked around watching some children on the city streets. I watched adults interacting with the children in their school, I watched them teaching, then playing, then teaching while playing. I just know, in the not too distant future, some of these "children" will be in a place to take "my" job, some of them could very well be my boss!

Some adults have the privilege of working one on one forming this generation. Many of you are parents dealing with your own life and raising your children. There are many of us out there, who might be done raising children, many single people, many couples not ready for children, many couples praying for children of their own. Each of us has a role to play in this upcoming generation.

All of the children need our prayers that they may grow up knowing that they are loved by a wide community, that we support them and that we stand with them. Remember to include all of our children in your prayers, and know that many of them pray for all of us every day as well, so let's return the blessings to them!

We are hoping to help anyone interested in learning more about annulments. Fr. Jerry, who has many years experience working at the tribunal for the Archdiocese of Detroit, will speak on Monday, February 27th, at 7:00pm on this very topic. If you are planning on attending, please RSVP to the parish office at 586-977-8080 or email Tara at tfinn_sjf@yahoo.com to RSVP or with any questions. UNITED STATES CONFERENCE OF
CATHOLIC BISHOPS

February 8th: International Day of Prayer and Awareness against Human Trafficking

The Pontifical Council for Justice and Peace and the International Union of Superiors General has designated February 8th as an annual day of prayer and awareness against human trafficking. February 8th is the feast day of St. Josephine Bakhita, who was kidnapped as a child and sold into slavery in Sudan and Italy. Once Josephine was freed, she became a Canossian nun and dedicated her life to sharing her testament of deliverance from slavery and comforting the poor and suffering. She was declared a Saint in 2000.

On February 8th, Catholics all over the world are encouraged to host or attend prayer services to create greater awareness about this phenomenon. Through prayer, we not only reflect on the experiences of those that have suffered through this affront to human dignity, but also comfort, strengthen, and help empower survivors.

In the words of the committee chairman for migration, Bishop Eusebio Elizondo, M.Sp.S.: "If just one person realizes from this day that they or someone they know is being trafficked, we will have made a difference.

Health Ministry
Fight Stress with Healthy Habits

Healthy habits can protect you from the harmful effects of stress. Here are 10 positive healthy habits you may want to develop:

Talk with family and friends

A daily dose of friendship is great medicine. Call or write friends and family to share your feelings, hopes and joys and ask them to share theirs.

Engage in daily physical activity.

Regular physical activity can relieve mental and physical tension. Physically active adults have lower risk of depression and loss of mental functioning. Physical activity can be a great source of pleasure, too. Try walking, swimming, biking or dancing every day.

Embrace the things you are able to change.

While we may not be able to do some of the things we once enjoyed, we are never too old to learn a new skill, work toward a goal, or love and help others.

Remember to laugh.

Laughter makes us feel good. Don't be afraid to laugh out loud at a joke, a funny movie or a comic strip, even when we're alone.

Give up the bad habits.

Too much alcohol, cigarettes or caffeine can increase blood pressure. If you smoke, decide to quit now. If you do drink alcohol, do so in moderation.

Slow down.

Try to "pace" instead of "race." Plan ahead and allow enough time to get the most important things done without having to rush.

Get enough sleep.

Try to get six to eight hours of sleep each night. If you can't sleep, take steps to help reduce stress and depression. Physical activity also may improve the quality of sleep and life in general.

Get organized.

Use "to do" lists to help you focus on your most important tasks. Approach big tasks one step at a time. For example, start by organizing just one part of your life — your car, desk, kitchen, closet, cupboard or drawer.

Practice giving back.

Volunteer your time or spend time helping out a friend. Helping others helps you.

Try not to worry.

The world won't end if your grass isn't mowed or your kitchen isn't cleaned. You may need to do these things, but right now might not be the right time.
