THIRTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME | November 5, 2017

Fr. Jerry Slowinski
Pastor
Ext. 101

THE FINAL JERRY-ATRICS

12 years, two weeks, and one day. That is the amount of time I have served at St. Jane Frances de Chantal parish. I began my assignment on October 22, 2005, and after the 11:30am Mass on Sunday, November 5, 2017, my term as pastor comes to a close. That is a total of 4,397 days.

First and foremost, I want to express my appreciation for the kindness you have extended to me. I have, these past few weeks, been reflecting fondly on the time we have shared together. The people of St. Jane Frances de Chantal parish will always have a special place in my heart.

Since I am only human, I realize I have made my share of mistakes along the way. I apologize to anyone who I have hurt, and pray that you could find it in your heart to forgive me if you feel you have been wronged.

Over the course of the 628 weeks and one day I have served as pastor of this faith community, I've baptized hundreds of children, witnessed the wedding vows of approximately 250 couples, performed too many funerals, heard a staggering number of confessions, visited hospitals and shut-ins, anointed an inestimable number of people, and celebrated more Masses than I could ever venture to postulate. Together, over the course of that time, we have realized a few dreams, lived through a few trials, and have persevered in faith.

While I am leaving, there is One who remains constant: Jesus Christ. Jesus has been here from the beginning and will be with you always. St. Jane Frances de Chantal parish always has been and always will be Christ's church. God is the One who deserves and should get all the glory for all that is good which has resulted over the time I have served here as your pastor. God is the One who is forever faithful. It has been a privilege and an honor to minister to the people of God here at St. Jane's in both times of tribulation and joy.

I do feel compelled to convey the following and hope it is understood in the right way. When this weekend concludes, I will no longer be the pastor of this faith community. Fr. Tony Sulkowski has been assigned by Archbishop Vigneron to serve as the fourth pastor of St. Jane Frances de Chantal. It is my hope that no one would ask me to return to be the celebrant for a family wedding, funeral, baptism, etc. I will have to say no to any such requests. I don't believe it is right to return to a former assignment unless there is some extremely compelling reason to do so. I am aware of priests who regularly return to parishes where they have served. Such a practice only undermines the work of the new priest who is beginning an assignment. Additionally, I am looking at a steep learning curve in serving as the only priest in a parish that is twice the number of registered families as St. Jane Frances de Chantal. It is just not humanly possible to honor such requests to return where I have previously served.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Eternal rest grant unto them, oh Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon them.

May their souls and all the souls of the faithful departed, through the mercy of God rest in peace.

I am so grateful to members of the parish staff, both those I have worked with in the past and those who I presently serve with, for all they have done. They have made me look far better than I ever could.

I'd like to close this final edition of Jerry-atics by offering you the following blessing:

May God bless you with a restless discomfort about easy answers, half-truths, and things which only have superficial meaning so you may seek truth boldly.

May God bless you with a holy anger at injustice and oppression of people, so that you may tirelessly work for justice, freedom, and peace.

May God bless you with the gift of tears to shed with those who suffer from pain, rejection, starvation, or loss of all they cherish, so that you may reach out your hand to comfort them and transform their pain into joy.

May God bless you with enough audacity to believe that you can really make a difference in this world, so that you are able, with God's grace, to do what others claim cannot be done.

And may God, the Creator of heaven and earth, Jesus Christ, the Word made Flesh, and the Holy Spirit, our Advocate and Guide, be with you and remain with you this day and forever more. Amen.

THE GOSPEL IN HD

If you have shopped for electronics, you know that whether you are talking picture or sound quality, HD is a basic requirement today. But, did you know that you can experience the Gospel in HD at St. Jane Frances? Its official name is Lectio Divina and it involves a group of parishioners coming together every Wednesday evening to focus on the coming Sunday's Gospel.

But, be forewarned: this is not a class! There is no pre-reading, no homework, and attendance is not mandatory. What you will find, though, are new insights into the meaning of the Sunday Gospel. You will hear the Gospel differently when proclaimed at Sunday Mass. You will hear the Lord speak to you more clearly and see more precisely what He is asking of you in the coming week. 7:00pm to 8:00pm on Wednesday evenings in Meeting Rm B. No sign-up required. Come as you are! See where the Lord takes you!

Archbishop Allen Vigneron will celebrate a Mass of Thanksgiving for the beatification of Father Solanus Casey at Most Blessed Sacrament Cathedral from 4:00pm - 6:00pm on Sunday, November 26th.

A member of the Capuchin Franciscan Order of St. Joseph, as well as one of the founders of Detroit's Capuchin Soup Kitchen, Father Casey was renowned for his miraculous cures, compassionate counsel, and service of the poor. Pope John Paul II declared him "venerable" in 1995. His beatification is a significant step toward his canonization as a saint. Everyone is invited to this Mass of Thanksgiving at the cathedral, thanks to your gifts to the Catholic Services Appeal.
