Intercessory Prayer Team Advancing the New Evangelization

Just a reminder that we have an Intercessory Prayer Team dedicated to praying for the needs of our parishioners. We have a group of very powerful pray-ers who meet twice each month to pray together for your intentions. When we aren't praying as a group, we remember you and your intentions in our personal daily prayers. In addition to these we pray for the requests submitted by our Faith Formation students and teachers, those on our Parish Sick List, our Military Service Personnel, and many others. Your prayer intentions can be placed in the Intercessory Prayer Box located near the Tabernacle or send your prayers via email to maureenblair.stjane@gmail.com. Such a beautiful experience praying together, calling on the Holy Spirit to guide us and to give us the words necessary to intercede for others. It is a very graced and blessed gathering for all involved. Also, you will see members of the prayer team at the Tuesday evening anointing Mass, laying on hands as Fr. Jerry anoints those who have come for the sacrament. After these Masses people will have the opportunity to request to be prayed over by the prayer team. Please keep an eye out for pray-ers as we hope to become a very visible part of the New Evangelization in revitalizing our own prayer, your prayer, and the effects that prayer can have!!!

If you would like to become a member of this team, you are invited to join us as we gather on the second Monday of each month at 1:30pm or the fourth Monday at 7:00pm. in Room B. We need many pray-ers!! We need to really get energized over this!! The world is crying out for us! If you are interested in joining this team, please contact Maureen Blair.

PENTECOST & THE GIFTS OF THE SPIRIT

WISDOM: With the gift of Wisdom, we see God at work in our lives and in the world. We are directed in matters of judgment about the truth and being able to see the whole image of God. Helps us to understand the purpose of God's plan for us and for the world and to see the world through God's eyes.

UNDERSTANDING: With the gift of understanding, we comprehend how we need to live as a follower of Jesus Christ. A person with understanding is not confused by all the conflicting messages in our culture about the right way to live. This gift helps us to learn about ourselves and how to grow in knowing God. Understanding clears away obstacles to true faith.

KNOWLEDGE: With the gift of knowledge, we understand the meaning of God's Revelation, especially as expressed in the life and words of Jesus Christ. A person with knowledge is always learning more about the scriptures and tradition. This gift enables us to judge what must be believed and what must not be believed.

FORTITUDE: With the gift of courage, we overcome our fear and are willing to take risks as a follower of Jesus Christ. A person with courage is willing to stand up for what is right in the sight of God, even if it means accepting rejection, verbal abuse, or even physical harm and death. The gift of courage allows people the firmness of mind that is required to do good and stand up to evil and especially to stand up for Jesus and his teaching.

COUNSEL: With the gift of right judgment, we know the difference between right and wrong, and we choose to do what is right – we make better moral decisions. The Holy Spirit points us to the most important considerations as we make decisions in life, always choosing good as a means to an end.

PIETY: With the gift of reverence we have a deep sense of respect for God and the church. A person with reverence recognizes our total reliance on God and comes before God with humility, trust, and love. In piety we pay worship and duty to God as our Father and HAVE immense trust in God's fatherly love.

FEAR OF THE LORD: With the gift of wonder and awe we are aware of the glory and majesty of God and the grateful wonder of His love for us. This fear of the Lord is like a child's fear of offending his father, rather than a fear of punishment. The worst thing that could happen to us is separation from the God that we love.

As is usual every year the choir season is from Labor Day to Pentecost and since Easter came so early this year, so does the end of the choir season.

Did you know that the choir rehearses two hours every week to assure that the Sunday experience brings people in to a deeper relationship with Jesus Christ through music.

These faithful members work very hard by attending rehearsals, learning music at home or on the way to and from work in their car, and providing beautiful music each and every Sunday and special feasts, celebrations, and holy days throughout the year. All of us need time to refresh and restart and that is why the choir takes the summers off from their service through song.

So if you see them in the pew at another Mass this weekend, be sure to say “hi” for just like the visitor, they sometimes feel like newcomers sitting amongst the assembly. Oh and by the way, if you are interested in more information about the choir, be sure to ask one of them. They will be happy to share with you.

Our Instruments in Praise group and cantors will continue providing liturgical music throughout the summer. Please consider joining one of the groups and raising your voice in praise.

Have a great week,
 Greg

VOCATIONS

The Traveling Chalice:
 A Program of Prayer For Vocations

Have you ever considered taking the Traveling Chalice home for a week? Parishioners are invited to sign up to take the Traveling Chalice home and display it for a week. They are asked to pray each night for vocations, especially for those to the priesthood and religious life. Included with the chalice are a variety of prayers that you can even use if you want as well as a reflection journal. There you can see how others before you have felt about having the Traveling Chalice in their home and share your experiences from having the chalice for a week.

Some people enjoy having that time to pray by themselves as an individual or a family while others use it as an occasion to use one or more nights that week to invite others over, share dessert, and take some time for prayer too. Neither way is wrong, it is just about what works for you!

If you would like to participate in The Traveling Chalice Program, you can sign up in the Gathering Space. You also can contact Ray at 586-979-7879 to sign-up or if you have any other questions!

Thank you for your prayers!

STEWARDSHIP

CAR SHOW

Join us for a Cruise-In on Friday, June 17th, from 4:00pm-8:00pm. The proceeds from the evening go to the Pastoral Outreach Support Fund. Whether you are bringing a car to show or just want to stroll around and check them all out, consider yourself invited! Concessions will be provided by the Knights of Columbus and we'll have music provided by Rockin' Ronnie!

If you are interested in joining the committee or helping out at this event, please contact Tara at tfinn_sjf@yahoo.com or 586-977-8080, ext. 107.

INTERESTED IN BIKING?

The Stewardship Commission is exploring the idea of having a Biking Club here at the parish. They would gather with their bicycles at a designated spot, take a bike ride to a destination and back to the starting location, and possibly grab a bite to eat after. If you would be interested in a group like this, please contact Tara at tfinn_sjf@yahoo.com or 586-977-8080, ext. 107. Thank you!

Pastor

On Saturday, May 14th, at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral in Detroit, Dominic Macioce, Paul William Graney, Kevin Joseph Roelant, David Mark Tomaszycski and Timothy Joseph Wezer were ordained priests of the Archdiocese of Detroit. Through the laying on of hands and the invocation of the Holy Spirit, Archbishop Allen Vigneron elevated these men to the order of presbyter for service to the People of God in this Archdiocese.

The lives of these five men have changed dramatically. During the praying of the Litany of the Saints, these five men, as a sign of their willingness to serve, lay prostrate on the floor of the Cathedral. They did not lay on the floor of the Cathedral because the floor is comfortable or because they sought to rest. They did not make promises to the Archbishop, and his successors, because they were looking to gain anything in return. They did all this because they felt called by God to serve. It is God's will. God's choice. God's gift, which led them to enter into intense study and formation for the priesthood. It is God's gift that these men were found worthy to answer the call. And we rejoice in that call and the willingness of these men to answer to it.

The world needs priests. The world needs witnesses who are willing to demonstrate their desire to serve the Lord and members of the Body of Christ. To be Christ's witness is not easy. St. Paul reminds us that Christ died for all, so that all who live might live no longer for themselves but for Christ. Christ teaches us how to love; His cross is the greatest example of love the world has ever known.

While these five men have taken on a new challenge by virtue of their ordination, each and every one of us is also called to take on a role which is filled with challenges. By virtue of our baptism, we are called to love as Christ does. To seek the good for others, even at a cost to our very self. The world though oftentimes rejects this type of love – a love that is not self serving; a love which makes demands upon us. The world does not always understand the love of Christ just as it oftentimes does not understand the call to serve as a priest. That a man would give his life away, and forsake physical intimacy and the possibility of a family, confuses the world. The reality though is that we receive so much more than we give. The Cross teaches us that too, that it is in giving our lives away freely, we are ultimately made free. The world desperately needs this type of witness of love, of people willing to lay down their lives so that others might have life and have life to the fullest. This is why these five men have freely chosen to answer God's call to serve. In the years to come, they will be called, sometimes in the middle of a cold night, when they are tired and on the verge of exhaustion, to go to a person who is on their deathbed and offer words of comfort, forgiveness and peace. They will be privileged to be present at key moments in the lives of so many people – at Baptisms, First Communions, weddings and funerals. They will seek to mend broken relationships, to forgive those seeking to be reconciled to God. It is nothing short of remarkable that God chooses mere mortals with such an awesome responsibility.

We are grateful that St. Jane Frances de Chantal Parish was able to play some role in Fr. Macioce's call to the priesthood. We are honored that he is here with us this weekend to offer his first Mass as a priest on the Feast of Pentecost, the birthday of the Church. We ask God to guide and watch over Fr. Dominic Macioce, helping him to persevere in fidelity, love and service in the years ahead which we pray will be many and blessed.

RIGHT TO LIFE FLOWER SALE

A sincere "Thank You" to all of our parishioners and friends who generously bought a silk rose or donated money in support of Right to Life of Macomb County N.W. A total of $640.00 was collected.
 This group of dedicated volunteers work diligently with families facing unplanned pregnancies and strives to educate them in regard to the truth concerning respect for life issues.
 A big "Thank You" to our Right to Life Committee members who helped with the selling of the roses.

SPONSOR OF THE WEEK

We want to thank Monique Potts of E & M Landscaping for advertising in the St. Jane Frances de Chantal bulletin.
 We ask our parishioners to please patronize the advertisers as they are the ones that help make our bulletin possible.
