I would like to extend my blessings to all the men of the parish as we celebrate Father's Day this weekend. If your father is living, give him a call or do something special with him. If your father is deceased, may you lift him up in prayer and recall the ways in which he influenced your life.

May we invoke the blessing of God, adapted from the Book of Blessings, upon all men who show us a father's love:

For our fathers and all men who have given us life and love, that we may show them respect and love.

*For fathers and all men who have lost a child through death, that their faith may give them hope,
and that their family and friends support and console them.*

For fathers who have died, that God may bring them into the joys of His Kingdom.

*For fathers and all men who are away from their families, especially those who are serving in the military,
that God may keep them safe and reunite them with their families.*

*God the Father, in your wisdom and love you made all things.
Bless these men, that they may be strengthened as Christian men.
Let the example of their faith shine forth.*

Grant that we, their sons and daughters, may honor them always with a spirit of profound respect.

We ask all of this in your name. Amen.

Have a wonderful week and enjoy the summer. As we all know, it goes by quickly.

Bon mot: "Where can a man better be than with his family?"

BLESS OUR FATHERS

Written by Tony Rossi.

Adapted from xavier.edu.

Heavenly Father,
today we ask You to bless our earthly fathers
for the many times they reflected the love, strength, generosity, wisdom, and mercy that You exemplify in Your relationship with us, Your children.

We honor our fathers—
for putting our needs above their own convenience and comfort;
for teaching us to show courage and determination in the face of adversity;
for challenging us to move beyond self-limiting boundaries;
for modeling the qualities that would turn us into responsible, caring adults.

Not all our fathers lived up to these ideals.
Give them the grace to acknowledge and learn from their mistakes.
Give us the grace to extend to them the same forgiveness that you offer us all.
Help us to resist the urge to stay stuck in past bitterness, instead moving forward with humility and peace of heart.

We ask your blessing on those men who served as father figures in our lives when our biological fathers weren't able to do so.

May the love and selflessness they showed us be returned to them in all their relationships, and help them to know that their influence has changed us for the better.

Give new and future fathers the guidance they need to raise happy and holy children, grounded in a love for God and other people, and remind these fathers that treating their wives with dignity, compassion, and respect is one of the greatest gifts they can give their children.

We pray that our fathers who have passed into the next life have been welcomed into Your loving embrace, and that our family will one day be reunited in your heavenly kingdom.

In union with St. Joseph, whom you entrusted with Your Son, we ask Your generous blessings today and every day.
Amen.

THE 2021 CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL: FUEL THE MISSION

As we face so many challenges in 2021, we are reminded of our call as missionary disciples to act out of the heart that God has formed in us. The CSA raises funds that make possible the work of the AOD, including supporting more than 100 ministries, programs, and services. This includes helping the hungry and homeless, supporting AOD parishes, priests, and seminarians, promoting the work of the Catholic schools, and so much more.

Our parish goal is $91,324.00. Once a parish reaches its individual annual goal, 100 percent of the overage is returned to the parish.

Please, prayerfully consider contributing to the 2021 Catholic Services Appeal. Visit sjf.aodcsa.org to make a pledge and learn more.

TODAY IS WORLD REFUGEE DAY

Adapted from catholiccurrent.org.

Today, we pause and remember the 25 million people who have had to flee their countries in search of safety for their families.

According to the 1951 Refugee Convention, a refugee is one who “owing to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group, or political opinion, is outside the country of his nationality, and is unable to, or owing to such fear, is unwilling to avail himself of the protection of that country.”

The Catholic Church has for decades taken seriously the plight of these vulnerable refugees, and through advocacy, education efforts, and service provision, sought to provide increased protections for them.

Visit justiceforimmigrants.org to learn how you can assist the Church in this effort.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK BEGINS JUNE 22, 2021

Adapted from catholiccurrent.org.

All people desire to enjoy communion with God. This desire gives rise to the search for religious truth and finds expression in the formation of religious culture. Even people who claim no religious affiliation cannot help but need ritual, belonging, and truth. Why? Because we all long to know and love the One in whose image we are made.

“For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him.”

The Church’s promotion of religious freedom expresses her solidarity with all people who seek the good and hope for fulfillment in the truth. As Pope Francis teaches:

“Hope speaks to us of a thirst, an aspiration, a longing for a life of fulfillment, a desire to achieve great things, things that fill our heart and lift our spirit to lofty realities like truth, goodness and beauty, justice, and love [...] Hope is bold; it can look beyond personal convenience, the petty securities and compensations which limit our horizon, and it can open us up to grand ideals that make life more beautiful and worthwhile.”

—Fratelli tutti

Join us throughout the week as we pray, reflect, and take action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad.

2021 PETER’S PENCE COLLECTION

Next Sunday, we will be taking up the Peter’s Pence Collection, which is a significant way to support the Universal Church. This collection, supported by Catholics around the globe, helps the Holy Father reach out to people suffering in our world. It also supports the ongoing activities of the Holy See.

An envelope is included in this bulletin. The collection will be taken up on June 27.

THE CHAPEL & OFFERTORY PROCESSION

Beginning July 1, 2021, the chapel will be closed again, and daily Mass on Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays will return to the chapel.

Also beginning July 1, 2021, we will have the Offertory Procession again during Mass. Information on signing up to present the gifts will be available in a future bulletin.

This is a happy Father's Day story which starts out rather painfully, but illustrates that when you're doing the right thing, God's plan is one you could not possibly have orchestrated.

My dad Buck passed away at age 93 on July 26, 2009 after some years of dementia. He'd gone into the hospital for another procedure, but his body said "no more," and he died on a Sunday morning, the day before his operation. Flashback to 1984: after Mom's death and her burial in her family plot, one grave remained for my dad. With his heart bypass surgery pending, Dad insisted on a cemetery visit, just to make sure his grave was ready in case things didn't go well. We were assured everything was in order, but ideally, Dad wouldn't need that plot for years. He lived 29 more years. The grave? Not so much.

Fast-forward to July 28, 2009. The day before Dad's Mass of Resurrection, a phone call from the funeral home interrupted some photo collecting work I was doing at Dad's house. The cemetery had just notified them that "Mr. Parrott cannot be buried in the grave next to his wife." Why? No room. Apparently graves were measured differently, without vault allowances, back in the early to mid-1900s. Mom's family all opted for vaults, so Dad was "squeezed out." The cemetery offered several pitifully poor (and costly) options, including separating mom and dad, buying new plots, and cremation, which Dad absolutely did not want. I was furious, especially since Dad and I had made that special trip years before.

Their suggestions were unacceptable, so I asked the funeral home if we could still have Mass, perform military honors, but then take Dad back to the funeral home until we had a solution for keeping Mom and Dad together. They said yes. I prayed, then let go to let God handle things. The next day, Fr. Tony celebrated a beautiful liturgy, I sang the music, and my family proclaimed the readings and brought up the gifts. Even my Navy SEAL nephew Ryan surprised us all by traveling halfway around the world to see his beloved Grandpa Buck. After the Honor Guard played Taps and presented me with the flag, we all watched as Dad was returned to the hearse. Then, we held a memorial luncheon. Only my brothers knew why we weren't following along to the grave site.

But then, something unbelievable happened. As soon as dad was safely inside the hearse, the funeral director and Army Sergeant approached, asking if I knew Dad could be buried at Great Lakes National Cemetery in Holly. I did, but what about Mom? Yes, she could be buried there too, right with him. My heart lifted as I knew Dad would want that—but there was more. The Army officer explained that filmmaker Keith Famie was making the movie Detroit: Our Greatest Generation about WWII veterans from Detroit. They needed a veteran's funeral to represent the tens of thousands of veterans who had died—and would I consent to Dad's inevitable second funeral being filmed? That was an easy decision. Dad's military service meant the world to him, and he'd be honored to be remembered in such a manner.

On September 1, 2009, Mom was disinterred and moved to Great Lakes. On September 2nd, Dad's procession drove down the solemn Avenue of Flags. In a beautiful lakeside pavilion setting, Fr. Tony officiated, I sang, and we held military honors ending with Taps and a 21-gun salute. Mom and Dad's graves lie on a sloping hill, facing the setting sun, just as he wanted. Happy Father's Day, Dad, and to all fathers who are now in heaven. I know you're watching over us all.
