

Mission 2016

Reaching Out While Crossing Cultures

In July, 26 people from St. Jane Frances and All Saints Parish (in Detroit) collaborated in a mission opportunity in the city of New York. We spent a week in Spanish Harlem (on upper Manhattan Island) assisting a parish in great need of help cleaning and organizing from years of having things just collect and stacked on top of the collection from previous years. All in all, our modest group FILLED to the brim three, 30 yard dumpsters with materials that we pulled from the church and rectory. (A 30 yard dumpster is approximately 6ft tall x 8ft wide x 22ft long.)

Long days and diligent work were the course for the week, but we were able to enjoy an evening in the local area and Central Park, and we spent the last afternoon in downtown New York City.

“Mercy in Action
Day of Service”
October 1, 2016

Our group of parishes (Our Lady of Czestchowa, Our Lady of Grace, Ss. Cyril & Methodius Slovak, St. Ephrem, and St. Jane Frances) are focusing on the Works of Mercy from Birth to Death. The activities will include: gathering donations for babies, children, servicemen/women, delivering cookies to the Sterling Heights Police & Fire Departments, gathering supplies for our coffeehouse for the disabled, doing a clothing drive for all ages (at St. Ephrem), having a social hour at Oakmont with Polish dancers, and doing a fall clean up for seniors and at two city owned cemeteries. Needless to say there are many ways you can help and show mercy!

In preparation, there are many activities you can be involved in:

- Respect Life—October 1st will kick off our annual month long baby crib collection in the gathering space. You can drop off diapers, formula, blankets, baby clothing, baby food, bottles, body wash...anything a baby would need!
- “Troops Need Love Too”—During September we will be displaying tags for non-perishable food, hygiene, recreational items and postage. On October 1st we will be packing the boxes. Our goal is to pack 250 boxes for our servicemen and women through the donations from several parishes in our Vicariate.
- Candy/Coffeehouse Drive—During September, we will be displaying tags to help support our coffeehouse for the disabled. They are in need of plates, cups, napkins, Costco, Gordon’s & Dollar Tree gift cards for food and decorations. Candy bags will also be collected for the Seminarians to pass out to children in Detroit for Halloween.
- Fall Clean Ups—We will need volunteers to help rake, weed and cut back the greenery at qualified senior homes and two city cemeteries.
- Hospitality—We will need help with registration and breakfast on the morning of October 1st for all volunteers.
- Prayers—Above all we will need your prayers for:
  - A sunny day on October 1st!
  - Enough “disciples” to work all these activities
  - Enough “disciples” to donate all the items for our brothers/sisters in Christ

By participating in the October 1st “Mercy in Action Day of Service”, you will by showing, in a visible way, that you are a disciple of Christ through your time, donations and your prayers. If you would like further information, please contact Debbie Mazur in the parish office 586-977-8080, ext. 113.
