Ordinary Time

We are in the midst of Ordinary time. What is Ordinary Time? The definition of Ordinary Time is taken from the Documents on the Liturgy. "Apart from those seasons having their own distinctive character, e.g.: Advent, Christmas, Lent, and Easter), thirty-three or thirty- four weeks remain in the yearly cycle that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ. Rather, especially on the Sundays, they are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects. This period is known as Ordinary Time."

In our day to day life, we should celebrate that God is blessing us and the people we share our gifts and talents with. It is in our everyday life that we see and experience God. However, we must see with the eyes of faith the experiences of our life as God given. We are created in the image and likeness of God and we are called to project those experiences to others so that they too can see God's hand in their lives.

One example I use often is the food baskets that we prepare for the needy at Christmas and Easter. It is very easy for us to give at those times of year. The need is always in the fore front of our mind at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. However that need is year round, during the ordinary times of the year.

Ordinary Time is not all that ordinary, it can be a challenging season. Unlike Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter these seasons already draw us and point us in the direction to celebrate a specific aspect of the life of Christ. In the season of Ordinary Time the onus or responsibility is placed on us. We are challenged to see God in our daily life, to celebrate the Word made flesh. To be disciples of the Lord is to see the Lord's presence in all aspects of our life and in those we come in contact with.

As I mentioned in my homily on the Feast of the Epiphany, we like the Magi, must look up so we can see the stars. In this New Year may we see what the Magi saw, namely the Word made flesh and it has come to dwell among us. In this day of social media with all that that means it is easy for us to communicate with anyone without ever making eye contact or speaking a single word. We need to look up and see our brothers and sisters and to become an active player in society, our church, our community.

Bon mot: What you have to do and the way you have to do it is incredibly simple. Whether you are willing to do it is another matter.

--- Peter Drucker.

Carpe Diem,

Worship Ministry Weekend

Next weekend, January 20/21, 2024, we will return to our occasional Ministry

Weekends with the Worship Ministries represented at a table in the Gathering Space. You are invited to stop by to learn more about the various worship ministries and consider joining one! I will be there to answer questions along with parishioners who can share their personal experiences of Worship ministry and help you to discern where God may be calling you.

By our baptism, we are called to be Jesus in the world, to serve God and neighbor. Serving our neighbors through parish ministry is a wonderful way to grow deeper into relationship with God. A vibrant parish is possible with an engaged group of disciples. Each of us is called to serve our parish in some way and each of the ministries in our parish provide different opportunities to serve.

Worship ministries fully support the liturgical prayer life of the parish, engaging parishioners in the liturgy for full, active, and conscious participation. Worship ministries are wide and varied, all seeking to enrich the faith and prayer life of each parishioner and providing opportunities to serve God and God's people and thus grow in holiness. There are worship ministries for both the young and the seasoned. Some ministries are behind-the-scenes and some play an active role in the liturgy itself. Ministries include Altar Server, Art and Environment, Baptism Hospitality, Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion, Funeral Hospitality, Launderers, Lector, Sacristan, Universal Prayer Authors, and Ushers.

Stop at the table next weekend to learn more about the many aspects of Worship Ministry and where God may be calling you. All are welcome!

It is at this time of year that we really experience the work of our wonderful Art and Environment ministers. A heartfelt thank you goes out to the generous parishioners who worked to transform our Worship Space for Christmas and to all those who joined in to remove the decorations! While our time to enjoy the Christmas environment was short, it is out of love of God that we work to prepare a suitable environment to remember the Incarnation. The beginning of the year is also a good time to remember and thank the wonderful Art and Environment committee members for their creativity and dedication to this ministry – Linda and Craig Smith, and Jody Gazo. If you have an interest in helping to plan our environment for liturgical seasons or just wish to help carry out those plans on a more regular basis, please consider joining this great group of people! Contact me anytime.

Nostalgic Moments

Don't you enjoy the nostalgia of pleasant memories, such as the beginning of a beautiful friendship?

How wonderful it is to relive the moment when Jesus called His first followers. I love to envision the sheer excitement and camaraderie that must have existed among those He called. An endless jubilee, God uniting with those He loves, ordinary human beings, you and me.

During His first interaction with his future Apostles Jesus declares, "Come, and you will see!" How good God is! By following His way, we find the true peace that no worldly satisfaction can ever give us.

God's love for the world indeed endures forever. Still today, know that God always sees You! Whether it is a time of joy or heartache, the mundane or the extraordinary, God promises He will always be there with us. Like He called Peter and Andrew by name, He is also calling YOU by name to have an ongoing relationship with Him. Through our steadfast prayers and by studying His teachings, let us always strive to be one with Jesus Christ, Who is past, present and forever and ever.
