Ecumenism

Each year, from January 22nd-29th, Catholics have offered eight days of prayers for Christian Unity. Until 1958, the general idea was that those who were not Catholic would return to the Catholic Church. The Catholic Church no longer holds that idea. It was St. Pope John XXIII, who at the conclusion of the Church's week of Prayer for Christian Unity, made a historic announcement that changed the Catholic Church. On January 25, 1959, he announced an Ecumenical Council, Vatican II.

St. Pope John XXIII's intention was that this Ecumenical Council be not only for the Catholic Church, but for all of Christianity. He desired that all churches, Catholic, Protestants, and Orthodox come together and overcome their divisions that have separated these churches for centuries.

One of the most famous quotes by St. Pope John XXIII was the quote he used to begin the week of Christian Unity. He said: "Let us begin with what unites us and not the things that divide us." In this simple yet powerful statement the Pope was challenging all those gathered to reflect upon their own Baptismal Call. It is our common baptism that unites us as brothers and sisters.

Since 1959, we have seen many ways in which Christian churches throughout the country as well as the world have come together to work as one to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus Christ and promote unity among each other.

As we celebrate the week of Christian Unity this January, may we reflect upon our own Baptismal Call and be of service to the Church. God has gifted each one of us, the challenge is to be aware of our gifts and not be afraid to share them with the greater community Ut Unum Sint—"That all may be one."

Prayer for Christian Unity

Lord Jesus Christ, you call us together in faith and love. Breathe again the new life of your Holy Spirit among us that we may hear your Holy Word, pray in your name, seek unity among Christians, and live more fully the faith we profess. All glory and honor be yours with the Father and Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

Bon mot: Christ is sending us out together; so that we may jointly bear witness to him. Thus we cannot remain separated! We must walk together, because it is Our Lord's will.

--- St. John Paul II. We Cannot Remain Separated, June 29,1995.

Carpe Diem,
Fr. Tony

WORD OF GOD SUNDAY

Today we celebrate the Sunday of the Word of God, instituted in 2019 by Pope Francis.

In his letter establishing this celebration, Pope Francis shares, "It is fitting, then, that the life of our people be constantly marked by this decisive relationship with the living word that the Lord never tires of speaking to his Bride, that she may grow in love and faithful witness" (Aperuit illis, 2). Every story told in the Scriptures, even the most challenging, reminds us that God loves his people and will always be faithful to the covenant he has made with us. God sent us his Son, the Word Incarnate, not only to speak these words of faithful love, but also to show us the depths of faithful love by dying on the cross and rising from the dead. Every word of Scripture points to this message of love enacted in the person of Jesus Christ, who is the Word himself (Fr. Brian Meldrum 2020).

In honor of today's celebration, we thank the lectors who proclaim the Word of God and the priests and deacons who preach it. To read more about this celebration, go to <https://www.usccb.org/committees/divine-worship/sunday-word-god>.

Saint Jerome, who translated most of the Bible into Latin in the fourth century, wrote, "Ignorance of the scriptures is ignorance of Christ." Every time we come to Mass we hear God's living word, as powerful and relevant today as when it was written. Daily reading of the Scriptures and regular study of God's word is pivotal to a life in Christ. Consider including or increasing your time with the Scriptures each day. An easy way to do this is to go to the USCCB website, bible.usccb.org/daily-bible-reading, for the readings of the day. This bulletin also includes the readings of the day for the current week. Another suggestion is to join our St. Jane Bible Study group that meets throughout the year, utilizing six-week study guides. All are welcome!

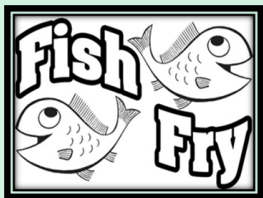

Spending time with Jesus in the Scriptures each day can lead to a greater following of his teachings, incorporating the lessons of our faith into our everyday lives. In today's Gospel we hear of Jesus calling Peter, Andrew, James, and John, two pairs of brothers. Jesus calls them while they are about their work as fishermen, their daily occupation. The men do not hesitate to follow Jesus; they drop everything! Jesus makes this same call to each of us in our daily activities. By our baptism, we are called to seek Christ in everything and serve as witnesses to his message of love. The closer we are to Jesus in the Scriptures the greater the witness we are in the world. Today would be a good day to resolve to spend time each day with the Scriptures and make God's word a guiding force in our lives.

WORSHIP MINISTRY WEEKEND

Continuing our Ministry Weekends, this weekend the Worship Ministries will be represented at a table in the Gathering Space. You are invited to stop by to learn more about the various worship ministries and consider joining one! I will be there to answer questions along with parishioners who can share their personal experience of the Worship Ministry and help you to discern where God may be calling you.

Stop at the table this weekend to learn more about the many aspects of the Worship Ministry and where God may be calling you. All are welcome!

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time

2023 LENTEN FISH FRYs

We will once again be hosting our Fish Frys on six Fridays in Lent. Proceeds from each Fish Fry will benefit a different ministry effort in our parish. 2-piece or 3-piece fish dinners will be available as well as a la carte items. We will have dine-in and carry-out options. Mark your calendars for the following dates: February 24th, March 3rd, 10th, 17th, 24th, and 31st.

More details will be in future bulletins and on the parish website. If you are interested in volunteering at a Fish Fry event, please contact Linda Smith at: LSmith@sjfparish.org or 586-977-8080, ext. 101.

2022 CONTRIBUTION STATEMENTS

If you have given $200 or more in 2022, a contribution statement was mailed to you on January 19, 2023.

If your total contribution was less, you will need to call the Parish Office at (586) 977-8080 or email Jody Gazo at JGazo@sjfparish.org and request a 2022 contribution statement.
