Ordination Anniversary

Two weeks ago, we heard these words from the book of Hebrews that are familiar to every priest. These words are spoken at every ordination. “You are my son: this day I have begotten you; just as he says in another place: You are a priest forever in the order of Melchizedek.” Hebrews 5:1-6

On November 22nd of this year, I will celebrate my 37th anniversary as a priest. As I reflect upon the past thirty-seven years, I recall with great fondness the sixteen classmates who were ordained that year. The four years in the seminary, as we prepared for our life in service to the Church and to the people of God, were great years, very memorable years.

Of the sixteen that were ordained in 1986, four have died, four have left the priesthood, three have retired, and five are still pastors of parishes throughout the province of Michigan. Until its closing in 1987, St. John’s Provincial Seminary was a major seminary in the state of Michigan. Anyone wishing to study for the priesthood within the province of Michigan attended St. John’s for his theological studies. So I was able to meet people from all over the State of Michigan.

How quickly thirty-seven years have gone! It seems like only yesterday that I was unpacking my bags at my first assignment, St. Linus in Dearborn Heights. A lot of water has flowed under the bridge since those first days after ordination.

I am grateful to God for calling me to the priesthood, for the many people I have met along the way and, the many experiences I have had. I would be remiss if I did not recall the challenges that graced my life and my ministry. They serve as a reminder to me that all things are possible with God if we just stay out of His ways. As I have said so often, this is God’s work we are about, and not our own. Indeed.

The church has changed in the past thirty-seven years. The church I was ordained to is not the church of today. The church is ever changing, just as we are. However, two things will always remain the same; God is always faithful to His people, and the Eucharist is the summit and source of who we are as Catholics.

I ask that you pray for me, as I will pray for you. Together, we are on a journey of faith, and together we will build up the Body of Christ. Have a great week.

Bon mot: We are impatient; anxious to see the whole picture, but God lets us see things slowly and quietly.

—Pope Francis

Carpe Diem,
Fr. Tony

Each year as we prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving, I take time to reflect on this community of faith and all that there is to be thankful for as we serve and worship God together. It is a joy to minister with all of you and to be part of a welcoming community that took me in six years ago. Thank you to the parishioners of St. Jane Frances de Chantal, the wonderful staff, and Fr. Tony. It is a blessing to continue to grow in faith with all of you!

Please join us on Tuesday, November 21st at 7:00pm for our Thanksgiving Mass. This is a wonderful way to usher in the time of preparation for the big meal and to thank God for the blessings of food and companionship. Then, as you celebrate the holiday, you may include a prayer of gratitude such as the one below from the United States Council of Catholic Bishops:

Lord, we thank you for the goodness of our people and for the spirit of justice that fills this nation. We thank you for the beauty and fullness of the land and the challenge of the cities. We thank you for our work and our rest, for one another, and for our homes. We thank you, Lord: accept our thanksgiving on this day. We pray and give thanks through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. (USCCB)

O COME O COME EMMANUEL

There is a suggested donation of $2 for each booklet.
