Advent

The Church begins the season of Advent, a season of preparation for the Feast of Christmas and the New Year. Many people have begun to prepare for this wonderful season. One only has to drive through the neighborhoods and see the colorful lights and Christmas trees decorated with ornaments and tinsel.

These are all ways in which we prepare for something special. When we celebrate family events such as marriages, baptisms, graduations, or the birth of a child, we always prepare to enter into these celebrations. However, we also prepare so that we are not caught off guard as the event approaches.

The Church invites us to prepare in a spiritual way to enter into the season. The season of Advent is our time to spiritually prepare for the great Feast of Christmas. There are many ways that we can do this: attend daily Mass, do some spiritual reading, the Little Blue Book, fix a broken relationship, volunteer at the church or in the community. How we prepare and when we prepare is up to us. The fact is that Christmas will come whether we are prepared for its arrival or not.

As we enter into the season of Advent may we prepare ourselves for the birth of Christ and may we pray for each other as we continue to build up the Body of Christ. Christmas is a time in which Christ is born into the world again.

Another resource for our spiritual growth, as well as knowing what is happening in and around the Archdiocese, is the Detroit Catholic. The Detroit Catholic, official publication for the Archdiocese of Detroit, replaced the print copy of the Michigan Catholic. It is an online news paper. Many of the papers that we read are now online. If you wish to view the Detroit Catholic you can either go to the Archdiocese of Detroit website, AOD.org, or you can go to DetroitCatholic.com. I must say that the layout is colorful and wonderfully done. I hope that you enjoy the current news from the local church as well as the international news from the universal church.

Have a wonderful Advent.

Bon mot: Plunge into the deep without fear, with the gladness of April in your heart.

-Sir Rabindranath Tagore

Today we begin the season of Advent. Advent is a word with Latin roots. It means "approach" or "coming." We use this time to prepare our souls for the coming of the Lord, examining our lives in the light of Christ. We are called to a life of holiness, as a reflection of Jesus to all we meet and in all our activities. During the four weeks of Advent when time is often taken up with secular preparations, be sure to give yourself the gift of time with the Lord. We have resources available in the gathering space to help you focus your thoughts, we have Advent Reconciliation Service on December 12th at 6:00pm, and we have two family activities to engage young and old in connecting the season to the life of Christ.

Advent is also the beginning of the new liturgical year for the Roman Catholic Church. On the first Sunday of Advent the Church celebrates its own kind of New Year's Day. Advent begins each year on the Sunday closest to November 30th, which is the feast day of Saint Andrew the Apostle. We also begin a new cycle of readings on the first Sunday of Advent, this year focusing on the Gospel of Matthew.

We are once again putting up the Christmas Creche for the season of Advent, as we have since Pope Francis wrote his Apostolic letter entitled Admirabile Signum – On the Meaning and Importance of the Nativity Scene on the first Sunday of Advent, 2019. This beautiful letter begins, "The enchanting image of the Christmas Creche, so dear to the Christian people, never ceases to arouse amazement and wonder." We place our beautiful creche up in Advent so that all can gaze at it in amazement and wonder as we prepare to celebrate the Christmas season. The creche reminds us of the love and mercy of God, coming into this world as a baby in a stable. The Son of God is placed where animals feed and "Laid in a manger, he became our food" (Pope Francis).

I have continued this tradition in my own home again this year, re-reading the Apostolic letter and meditating on the various elements of the nativity scene as part of my daily prayer and reflection. I would encourage you to read the entire letter. It is a short six pages and both an easy and an enlightening read. You can find the letter at the Vatican.va website or simply Google Admirabile Signum.

As we continue our Advent journey to Bethlehem, may we gaze at the nativity scene and let ourselves be drawn by the light of God made man.

At an hour you do not expect,
the Son of Man will come

JWJCatholic.Academy FIRST SUNDAY OF ADVENT Family Page

Today is the first Sunday in Advent. Advent is a special time in the church year. It is a time when we prepare ourselves for the coming of Jesus. We prepare ourselves for the coming of Jesus born as a baby in Bethlehem. We prepare ourselves for the coming of Jesus among us here and now. We prepare ourselves for the coming of Jesus in glory at the end of time.

There are four Sundays in Advent and that means there are four Sundays before Christmas, when we celebrate the birth of Jesus, born as a baby in Bethlehem. Advent is a time of waiting, but it isn't a boring, sitting around kind of waiting. We are waiting in an active way. We are looking and preparing for Jesus to come. Our hope is in the Lord.

Discuss as a family:

- What is something you are hoping for?
- How have you seen God at work in your life?
- What does hope feel like?

ACTIVITY: Read Isaiah 64: 8-9. Use some playdough, model magic, or clay to create something. God is like a potter creating wonderful things. Isaiah 64:8 says, "Yet, O Lord, you are our Father; we are clay, and you are our potter; we are all the works of your hand." Create something wonderful out of playdough, remembering all the amazing things God has created in this world.

SONG: My Hope Is In the Lord | Cave Quest VBS Music Video | Group Publishing (YouTube)

PRAYER: Thank you, God, that you are with us. Thank you for your faithfulness to your children. May the candle of hope be a reminder today and throughout the Advent season that our hope is in you. Amen.

Color the first candle of hope either blue or purple for the first Sunday of Advent.

ADVENT WREATH BLESSING

All make the sign of the cross as the leader says: Our help is in the name of the Lord.

Response (R/.) Who made heaven and earth.

Then the Scripture, Isaiah 9: (lines 1-2 and 5-6) or Isaiah 63 (lines 16-17 & 19) or Isaiah 64 (lines 2-7) is read. Following the reading, with hands joined, the leader says:

Lord our God,
 we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ:
 he is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples,
 he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us,
 he is the Savior of every nation.
 Lord God,
 let your blessing come upon us
 as we light the candles of this wreath.
 May the wreath and its light
 be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation.
 May he come quickly and not delay.
 We ask this through Christ our Lord.
R/. Amen.

The blessing may conclude with a verse from O Come, O Come, Emmanuel:

O come, desire of nations, bind
 in one the hearts of humankind;
 bid every sad division cease
 and be thyself our Prince of peace.
 Rejoice! Rejoice! Emmanuel shall come to thee, O Israel.

DO YOU HAVE PREDIABETES?

Do you know that 88 million people in the US have prediabetes? And that 8 out of 10 don't know that they are at risk of developing Type 2 diabetes. Risk factors for Type 2 diabetes include being over 45, overweight, being inactive, and having a family history of diabetes. If you are prediabetic, you can prevent or delay development of Type 2 diabetes by losing weight, eating healthy, and being more active...easier said than done. The CDC Diabetes Prevention Program can help. See the Health Ministry Bulletin Board for more information about prediabetes, a prediabetes risk test, and the CDC Diabetes Prevention Program through Henry Ford Health.
