This and That

People have asked how we go about making an appointment with you. Every priest has his own method. I prefer to schedule my own appointments. Many people try to schedule an appointment with me when they see me in the gathering space before or after Mass. The time before and after mass is a time for me to greet parishioners and guests who may be visiting our parish and not the time to conduct parish business.

You can call the parish office and leave a message on my answering service. My extension is 102. Please do not call the emergency line to make an appointment with me. I usually will return calls when I am in the office or the following day.

With the office being closed on Friday, I have decided to take Friday as my day off. I have been known to pop into the office on a Friday to catch up on work. The Sisters I had in grade school often referred to those days as “catching up on seat work”.

People will often ask me after I visit someone in the hospital or nursing home, “How is Mr. or Mrs. Smith doing?” My answer is, I can’t tell you because people in hospitals and nursing homes are protected by the HIPPA law. Simply put, the HIPPA law is a privacy law. For example, your neighbor or friend cannot call me and ask me to go and visit a person in the hospital. Only the person themselves or a blood relative can call and request that I visit their loved one.

I would also remind you that all hospitals have a pastoral care department. I would ask that you call the pastoral care department when you or a loved one is admitted to the hospital. They are there to respond to your needs.

Gone are the days when the hospital would call the parish, give the name of the person, their room number, and their diagnosis. That is no longer done. The person’s privacy is protected by HIPPA. In the age of social media having all the information available at our fingertips at any given time, protecting and respecting a person’s privacy is more important now than it has ever been.

I hope everyone has a joyous week.
