The Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ

The Catholic Church throughout the world celebrated the Feast of the Body and Blood of Christ last weekend. In every country of the world, province, state, city or hamlet each Sunday the Eucharist is celebrated in community with the people of God. Thus we are united with all people when we come together to celebrate the Eucharist.

I recall being in Battery Park when Pope John Paul II made a pastoral visit to the United States. When he elevated the host at the open air mass he united everyone who was in attendance with that simple yet powerful gesture.

Today is also a reminder to each of us to recall the day in which we were invited to receive the Eucharist for the first time. Pope Francis reminds us often that the Eucharist nourishes and strengthens us to proclaim the gospel message to those we meet in our daily activities. That without the Eucharist we are nothing. Our Church and our lives are centered upon the Eucharist. All that we are and all that we do flows from the Eucharist. With the Covid19 pandemic and the closing of churches for ten weeks, each of us did experience life without the Eucharist and the community that gathers for prayer. Sometimes you have to lose something to gain a greater appreciation for it.

From my experience of saying Mass in an empty church, I can tell you that I gained a greater understanding and appreciation for the people who gather for the celebration of the Eucharist. We are a social people and we are called to be a part of a community.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church states: The Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life. The other sacraments, and indeed all ecclesiastical ministries and works of the apostolate, are bound up in the Eucharist and are oriented towards it. For in the blessed Eucharist is contained the whole spiritual good of the Church, namely, Christ himself, our Pasch. The Eucharist is the sum and summary of our faith: Our way of thinking is attuned to the Eucharist, and the Eucharist in turn confirms our way of thinking”.

I recall the words of an old priest when he said to me shortly after I was ordained. May you celebrate the Eucharist as if it were your first time and your last time.

Let us celebrate as a community of faithful disciples the Lord, who calls us, invites us and who nourishes us to embrace the Gospel of Life and proclaim it in our daily lives.

Bon mot: “God has called me to be who I am, in order that I might serve the church, and not that the church might serve me.”

—Pope Pius V

Have a great week

Fr. Tony

Happy Feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ or Corpus Christi!

Here's a little history about today's feast day, from the Sourcebook for Sunday, Seasons, and Weekdays, Liturgy Training Publications:

"This Eucharistic day began in a quiet Belgian convent in the thirteenth century, with the vision of a holy nun, St. Juliana. In her vision, she saw the moon, full and bright. It was glorious, except that one part of its disk was in shadow. The meaning of the vision was then revealed to her: the moon represented the liturgical year; the shadow, a missing feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Juliana spoke to her confessor about what she had seen. Amazingly, within thirty-five years, Pope Urban IV had established the feast of Corpus Christi, the Body of Christ, in the Church's universal calendar. Hundreds of years later, in 1849, Pope Pius IX added the Feast of the Precious Blood celebrated on July 1st. Following the Second Vatican Council, the two liturgies became one solemnity in honor of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

Corpus Christi is an expression of our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. This celebration is also outward looking, carrying the liturgy out of the church and into the streets. We come together in all our diversity and we celebrate our unity."

Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

Here is a prayer for the week:

God of the covenant, we are grateful that you have called us to be your people, in deep connection with you and with one another. Our participation in the Eucharist confirms this calling and our commitment to live it daily. Help us to remember this each time we approach the eucharistic table. We ask this in the name of your Son, in whose body and blood we partake. Amen.

Today's Feast Day is also a great time to recognize all those who serve as Eucharistic Ministers. By offering the Eucharist, you recognize the Body of Christ in those to whom you minister and, ultimately, you act as the Body of Christ by fully participating in the life of the parish and the wider community. We are grateful for your ministry. We are also always in need of additional people to serve in this ministry. Please contact me if you feel called to serve in this ministry (now is a great time to be trained!).

Each year, the Catholic Services Appeal supports the work of more than 170 ministries, services, and programs in the Archdiocese of Detroit that respond each day to the material and spiritual needs of countless individuals and their families. Our parish alone could not meet these many needs. When we join other parishes to come together as the Church, nourished and strengthened by the Eucharist, our words and actions share the Good News of the Gospel with those around us. We are grateful for the many ways you have contributed to the CSA in the past. Please consider renewing your gift this year, and together, let us continue to go and announce the Gospel of the Lord. If you have already made a gift, thank you for your generous support! To make a gift, visit givecsa.org. Envelopes can be found in the gathering space or in the parish office.
