Missionary Cooperative

Because of the pandemic we were unable to host the annual missionary cooperative that takes place in every parish throughout the Archdiocese of Detroit. I am happy to welcome Fr. Larry McCulloch to St. Jane Frances de Chantal.

Fr. Larry McCulloch, M.M. will be at the parish the weekend of August 6th-7th for the annual missionary cooperative appeal and collection for the Maryknoll Fathers and Brothers. Fr. Larry McCulloch will celebrate and speak at all the Masses. Fr. McCulloch served as a Maryknoll missionary in Central America and China and is now retired but helping in Mission Education and Promotion.

Fr. Larry is from Detroit, Michigan, and was ordained at Maryknoll, New York in 1970. He says he always wanted to be a missionary because he wanted to see the world, but do something for God at the same time. His missions took him to El Salvador, Nicaragua in Central America where he spent sixteen years. More recently he served in Taiwan and Mainland China where he worked as a University Chaplain and helped to found a series of schools for handicapped children. He will be speaking about how you, your family, and your parish can help spread the Gospel of love and life to the world.

May we keep in our prayers and thoughts all those men and women who serve the universal Church as missionaries throughout the world. And in many parts of the world, missionaries place their lives at risk to proclaim the message of the Gospel.

I ask that you extend a warm St. Jane Frances de Chantal welcome to Fr. Larry.

I would like to thank all those people who sent gifts and cards in remembrance of my 64th birthday. They were very much appreciated. Have a wonderful day.

Bon mot: "He has taken a candle to another room we cannot see but we can see where he has been by the light he leaves behind."

Today we celebrate the second World Day for Grandparents and the Elderly!

This is a Church-wide celebration that will be held each year on the fourth Sunday of July, close to the feasts of Saints Joachim and Anne, the grandparents of Jesus. Pope Francis explained that he instituted the World Day of Grandparents and the Elderly because “grandparents are often forgotten, and we forget this wealth of preserving roots and passing on” what the elderly have received. He emphasized the importance of grandparents and grandchildren getting to know one another, because “as the prophet Joel says, grandparents seeing their grandchildren dream,” while “young people, drawing strength from their grandparents, will go forward and prophesy.”

In a press release following the announcement in January of last year, Cardinal Kevin Farrell, Prefect of the Dicastery for Laity, Family and Life, wrote that “The pastoral care of the elderly is a priority that can no longer be postponed by any Christian community. In the encyclical Fratelli tutti, the Holy Father reminds us that no one is saved alone. With this in mind, we must treasure the spiritual and human wealth that has been handed down from generation to generation.”

Below is a home prayer service, provided by the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, that you can use to honor and bless the grandparents and elderly in your life.

This blessing may be used at special family visits (such as holidays), at the beginning or end of a visit, or at another appropriate time. If possible, the oldest grandchild might serve as the leader.

When the grandparents, parents, and children have gathered, all make the sign of the cross.

Leader: Blessed be God, who is faithful through all generations.
 R/. Blessed be God forever.

The leader introduces the blessing in these or similar words:

Grandparents are cherished members of our family. They bring gifts of wisdom, experience, and love and share with us their life of faith. We thank God for their example and ask that he bless them with happiness and good health.

Then the Scripture is read:

Listen to the words of Psalm 128:
 Happy are you who fear the Lord,
 who walk in his ways!
 For you shall eat the fruit of your handiwork;
 happy shall you be, and favored.
 Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine
 in the recesses of your home;
 Your children like olive plants

around your table.

Behold, thus is the man blessed who fears the Lord.

The Lord bless you from Zion:
 may you see the prosperity of Jerusalem
 all the days of your life.

May you see your children's children.
 Peace be upon Israel!

(The family Bible may be used for an alternate reading, such as Ezekiel 37:24b-27.)

Reader: The Word of the Lord.
 R/. Thanks be to God.

After a time of silence, all join in prayers of intercession and in the Lord's Prayer. Then the leader prays:

Lord God almighty,
 bless our grandparents with long life,
 happiness, and health.

May they remain constant in your love and be living signs of your presence to their children and grandchildren.
 We ask this through Christ our Lord.
 R/. Amen

All make the sign of the cross as the leader concludes:
 May God bless us and keep us
 all the days of our lives.
 R/. Amen

“Lord, teach us to pray....” How do you pray? People often think there is a right way and I’m not so sure there’s any unique or correct way, other than to quietly sit with the Lord, first, putting forth your thanks, then offering your needs to Him and patiently waiting for an answer. Asking for money or favors or specific wants – as kids ask their parents for everything – is probably not what was going on in the minds of the inquisitive disciples from today’s Gospel.

From that request came our beloved ‘Lord’s Prayer’. It’s a very short but powerful prayer and every Christian knows it, and hopefully lives it. However, what the Lord says after that is a guideline as to how we should live in this world and treat other human beings.

One song that will be used this weekend is “Increase Our Faith”, a very beautiful melody with a dramatically quiet refrain: “Lord, increase our faith. With all our heart, may we follow You. Teach us to pray, always, always.” The verses also speak directly to today’s Gospel: “So I say to you, ask, you will receive; seek and you shall find. Knock, it shall be opened to you”. Whoever asks, they shall receive; whoever seeks shall find; whoever knocks, the door will be opened. If you, with all your sins, know how to give, how much more will God give to all those who cry from their hearts?

So how does this apply to daily life in our own times? We don’t normally have strangers, or even friends, literally knocking on our doors at all hours of the night. Perhaps there might be emails, texts or phone calls at odd times when someone is in need. But sometimes a need is there and doesn’t make itself readily known or obvious.....you have to find it and then figure out how to fill it.

Such a need manifested itself back in the fall of 2016, in mid-October, a couple weeks before the Navy ship USS Detroit (LCS-7) was commissioned. For four years our committee planned and prepared, according to the Navy’s guidelines: setting up meetings, networking, dealing with the political, veteran and military groups, scheduling parties, dinners, tours and more. And then there was Commissioning Week itself. As Special Events Chair, most of that fell under my watch. I thought we’d covered everything, but then three weeks prior, one glaring error surfaced as we talked to more veterans. What special event was planned for those who had served?

The answer? Nothing. There was no mention of any celebratory veterans’ event in the Navy playbook. That wasn’t right and John, the Commissioning Committee Chair agreed, but there was nothing in the budget, so unless I could put something together quickly – with no money – it wouldn’t happen.

But something did happen, something miraculous, especially at the scale this needed to be: “Ask.... and you shall receive”, and wow, hat in hand, I got to work asking. Within a few days, a popular downtown brewery donated a large space, various food purveyors and restaurants donated all the food and most beverages (and the venue allowed it, no small feat in itself!), the Detroit Red Wings sent players, sound equipment and street hockey games, a bus company donated transportation services, including special vehicles for the disabled, to transport anyone to the ship for tours, photographers donated their services, museums sent military displays....and the list went on. We had over 350 veterans attend this event, along with some caretakers from assisted living facilities. All of this for zero dollars.

When the ask is right and the cause is just, sometimes you simply have to forge ahead, even if you don’t know how you are going to accomplish your purpose. I can, however, guarantee that the first thing you do is to ask for God’s blessing and He will always provide. That’s what I did.

“Ask and you shall receive, seek and you will find, knock and the door will be opened.”

CONGRATULATIONS 2022 GRADUATE!

Ryan Kovacs
 Class of 2022
 Sterling Heights High School

Ryan will attend Oakland University with a major in Computer Science

Graduate Blessing

Lord, I lift this graduate up to You and ask for Your mighty blessings to rain down. Show this child success in life and allow him to be respected and appreciated in all that he does. Allow him to feel the joys of accomplishments after hard work, but also keep him focused on knowing that You are the reason for all successes in life. Give him courage, unbending faith, strong values, and a generous heart. Keep his Christian foundation a part of all decisions made and bless him with bountiful opportunities. I ask these things in Your name. Amen.

TODAY'S GOSPEL FOR KIDS
Sunday, July 24, 2022: 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Luke 11:1-13: The Lord's Prayer

SIMPLE GOSPEL EXPLANATION FOR KIDS

Sometimes we have prayers that we like to use or say. But sometimes we have a hard time coming up with the right words to say when we pray. We might be uncertain or confused. The good news is that the Bible helps us! There are some great prayers we can find in the Bible. Jesus gave us a great blueprint for prayer. In the New Testament, some of His disciples were asking Him how to pray, and He gave them some words to try. We call this "The Lord's Prayer", and we can use it to help us pray.

ACTIVITY

BREAD HIDE AND SEEK: Take a few pieces of bread and hide them around the house, especially behind doors. Have one or several other family members try to find them. Discuss Jesus teaching his disciples how to pray in today's gospel.

OPTIONAL: Bake some home-made bread and give it to neighbors with the Lord's Prayer written on a card.
