For Whom the Bells Toll

I would like to wish all of you a Happy Labor Day. It is as you know the last holiday that brings summer to a close. May we take some time to enjoy our family and friends, to reconnect with nature and to reflect upon the many ways that God has blessed our life. God is good all the time, God is good.

Labor Day affords us the opportunity to reflect upon the many blessings God has bestowed upon each of us. To see God's handiwork in all that we do and create with the gifts and talents that God has gifted us and encourages us to use for His greater glory and for the benefit of all of us. We all have value and we all contribute in our own way to the betterment of our society and the world.

As students and teachers prepare to return to the classroom this academic year, may we as a community of faith, offer to them our prayers and blessing that they, students and teachers alike, may enjoy learning and take delight in new discoveries and share those experience with others. We also remember parents, who are the first teachers of the faith that their faith and love may be an example to their children and the community. May you experience wonderment and awe in each passing day. This is the day the Lord has made let us rejoice and be glad.

As they prepare for a new school year we offer them this blessing:

Lord our God. In your love and wisdom you surround us with the mysteries of the universe.

In times long past you sent us your prophets to teach your laws and to bear witness to your undying love.

You sent your Son to teach us by word and example that true wisdom comes from you alone.

Send your Holy Spirit upon these students and their teachers and fill them with your wisdom and blessing.

Grant that during the academic year they may devote themselves to their studies and share what they have learned from others.

We pray this through Christ our Lord. (The Book of Blessings.)

Bon mot: The distance we have gone is less important than the direction in which we are going. Live seeking God, then you will not live without God.

World Day of Prayer for Creation

“The annual World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation offers to individual believers and to the community a precious opportunity to renew our personal participation in this vocation as custodians of creation, raising to God our thanks for the marvelous works that He has entrusted to our care, invoking his help for the protection of creation and his mercy for the sins committed against the world in which we live.” — Pope Francis

Prayer of Stewardship

God of all creation,

At the beginning of time

You placed a single mandate on humankind-

To be stewards of creation

To replenish and nurture

Through all generations

What you have made.

We kneel today amid that same creation –

A world that is, in many ways,

More splendid than ever

But, in too many ways, scarred

Behind recognition.

Turn us from our unmindfulness

Help our touch be light

Help us renew the world that supports us

So that we may once more know creation

As it was in the beginning. Amen.

Come encounter the love of Jesus Christ through the Catholic Church!

The Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is a religious instruction program; a conversion (turning) process for the non-baptized and those baptized in other Christian churches. It is a process for welcoming adult newcomers or returning Catholics into relationship with Jesus Christ through the sacraments of the Roman Catholic Church. It's even a great place for lifelong Catholics to ask questions, find answers, and cultivate faith-filled relationships.

It is also a community journey in which seekers and church members reflect together on their own relationship with God. It is a personal journey that leads to a transformation of mind and spirit.

Are you looking for a community of faith-filled people who will learn and grow along with you? RCIA may be for you.

You can begin inquiring about the faith at any time. If you are curious, or know someone who is, please call me and I'll be happy to talk more about the process, no commitment necessary. All are welcome!

Janina Jacobs
 Director of Music
 JJacobs@sjfparish.org
 Ext. 103

St. Jane Frances de Chantal has some very special people who dedicate their time and talent to make our worship services spiritually enriching, and I thank them all! My role in Music Ministry allows me to work with these fine folks: the Choir, the Bell Choir, and Instruments of Praise (IIP). As with anything else during Covid, our music program took a hit but, through the grace of God, we are getting through it. Not only are my music ministry members hard working and loyal, but they are involved in many other areas at St. Jane Frances. All of them are very caring and compassionate and when one member suffers, we all do.

Last week I highlighted our Cantors, who are also part of our choir. They do a bit of extra work when we have Cantor rehearsal every 2nd Sunday of the month, practicing Psalms and responses. You may not realize that our Gather III hymnbook doesn't carry all of the Psalms, so other versions must be found for them to try. All of their voices are different and we work to fit their vocal range to the selected Psalm.

The choir works hard from September to June. Yes, they get the summer off from Wednesday rehearsals and Sunday morning warm-ups, but do wish to sing and praise God at Mass on Sundays, some members even singing at both masses. Currently, some are still not singing with us due to Covid concerns, but I know they are there, in heart and I wish them all well.

Joyce and Chris are the Choir librarians who keep our music filed away properly and then there's Bob, Joyce's husband who assists with that. Janet and Andrew are a husband-wife team who are also active in German cultural dance; Janet is a world class baker and Bell Choir member, and Andrew does marvelous work with wood and carpentry. Chris (Parish Nurse and Health Ministry member) and Bill 'Cos' are another husband-wife 'tenor' team, who went on the recent pilgrimage to Israel with Fr. Tony (yes I did excuse them from choir that weekend!) and you'll read about that experience soon. Jan and Bill are Cantors as well as lectors. Then there are sopranos: Mary E (Cantor and recent proud Grandma), Merisa, who is a new VP for the Michigan Council for the Blind and Visually Impaired, librarian Chris, and ultra high soprano/descant singer Marge, who also sings with the Motor City Chorale. Tom, choir comedian and long-time member who cantors at 11:30am masses, rounds out the Bass section. Communications Facilitator & Christian Service Coordinator James Torres now joins us on occasion, with his wonderful baritone voice. The altos are Mary H, just back from vacation, and Fawn, who heads up the Bell Choir and Youth Chimes Group; she is also our very creative lead percussionist. Jeanette and Leslie hopefully will be back soon. Leslie's gifts also include handmade crafts; she made the lovely bag in which I haul my music around.

Alex heads up our IIP Group. He is a dedicated and fine musician (Viola) and researches the readings months in advance to help plan music for the first and third Saturdays of the month.

VOICE CARE: In the past, Dr. Adam D. Rubin has helped me with voice issues. He recently wrote a book, 'The Vocal Pitstop: Keeping Your Voice on Track'. In it, he shares some tips which I've used to try and keep my voice healthy. As mentioned last week, the voice is a very unique creation and a special gift from God. Without it, we can lose a lot and so, we must take care of our voices. Here you go:

- *Avoid shouting, screaming, yelling, or talking in loud environments. Whispering is a no-no too.
- *Drink plenty of water; it lubricates the throat and vocal apparatus.
- *Don't smoke and do try to avoid second-hand smoke or other airborne pollutants or inhalants.
- *Avoid alcohol, or other acidic drinks which dry out your throat.
- *Take 'voice naps'. Don't talk when you can avoid it. Get regular sleep and rest as well.
- *If you notice vocal changes or acid-reflux symptoms, get thee to a doctor!

Interested in joining our Book Club?

The Book Club meets on the second and fourth Thursday of each month, from 10:30am – noon in the lower level of the parish offices. Our first meeting following the summer break is on September 8th. Each book that our group has read has brought something different to our continued conversion, forming us ever closer in relationship to God and each other. As a result of our discussion on a previous book, we will read Elie Wiesel's Night, a Nobel Peace Prize winning autobiography of Wiesel's experience as a teenager in the Nazi death camps. It is a story of great loss and suffering but, ultimately, of the power of faith, forgiveness, and witness. All are welcome. Please contact Laurie Hall (586) 977-8080 ext. 104 or LHall@sjfparish.org to let her know to expect you. Please plan to bring a copy of the book. It is available for purchase at most bookstores, including Amazon.
