A Prayer in Response to Cold Weather

God who brings each season, to refresh and renew the earth and inspire our hearts, help us to see each person as unique as each snowflake, each day as full of opportunity for moving from death to life, and each breath, hanging in the cold, as a remembrance of your Spirit, surrounding and filling all your people. Amen.

Epiphany Proclamation

Know, dear brothers and sisters that, as we have rejoiced at the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, so by leave of God's mercy we announce to you also the joy of His Resurrection, who is our Savior.

On the first day of March will fall Ash Wednesday, and the beginning of the fast of the most sacred Lenten season.

On the sixteenth day of April you will celebrate with joy Easter Day, the Paschal feast of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the twenty-eighth day of May will be the Ascension of our Lord Jesus Christ.

On the fourth day of June, the feast of Pentecost.

On the eighteenth day of June, the feast of the most Holy Body and Blood of Christ.

On the third day of December, the first Sunday of the Advent of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom is honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

Thoughts on Discipleship: If churches are shrinking it's because people are not interested in a religious social club. They're interested in changing their lives and changing the world. They're seeking real meaning and purpose. And the way you do that is in a community of people who are intentional about meaning and purpose, intentional about being in relationship with God. ## Health Update

Dear Parishioners,

It has been since September since I've given you an update. Thanks so much for your complementary comments on my hair coming back in. I will say that for me it is better to have hair than not have hair. I will begin a new course of chemotherapy next week. I had finished on the clinical trial and had started a fourth chemo which wasn't as effective as we had hoped. But, we move forward with a plan and for that I am very grateful. Again, none of this would be possible without your prayers...please know that I am so grateful for your continued faith and support. I remain feeling well with only the occasional minor setbacks. My health team, my family and friends, and my colleagues on staff are amazing in helping me to manage through these times. I was able to do some travel over Christmas, and I have a few adventures planned for the near future. I'm not sure how I will react to this new chemo so I'm not sure how much I will be around on weekends, however, please know I do my best to keep up with my duties here at the parish and do so enjoy serving you in this ministry. As always, I continue in humility to ask that you please keep the prayers coming! Again, I am so grateful.

Maureen

We Need You!!!

The Parish Worship Commission promotes the prayer life of the total parish which includes liturgies, para-liturgies, private prayer, family and group prayer, and public devotions.

We are in need of a few more members to join this active commission. The commission is actively working with the Youth and Young Adult groups to invite them to greater participation as ministers within the liturgies. Also, we are looking into ways we can better educate and communicate how worship develops and informs our intentional discipleship. We are looking for people of confirmation age and above to join us. Please contact Maureen Blair if you are interested or have questions!

Canticum Novum – Here Am I Andy Langlands

This week we begin the celebrations between Christmas Season's end and the beginning of Lent known as Ordinary Time. As Christians, we know there is never anything ordinary about Sunday. The creative work and play of celebrating Mass is an expression of love our hearts cannot do without. The season is so named because we don't identify any critical moment of the church's tradition to focus on, which is what Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter do. Instead, we are led toward those moments through Ordinary time. Sunday is the fruit of our week. It celebrates the gift of God's grace received all week long. Our creative energy is realized through the celebration of word, sacrament, music, decoration/environment and the participation of every person gathered for Mass. The outside world is suspended: put away for a time so the heavenly banquet remembered in front of us is our only thought.

This week, we will sing Psalm 40. The words "Here am I Lord, I come to do your will" are put into our minds with great intent by God. The psalmist (David) points toward the virtue of patience which corresponds to the spiritual gift of understanding. Understanding means we comprehend how we need to live as followers of Christ. In it, we see that following means we are patient to see the way, instead of pressing to make God reveal it all now. David sings "I have waited, waited for the LORD, and he stooped toward me and heard my cry. And he put a new song into my mouth, a hymn to our God." As we sing, let us all keep in mind the graceful waiting for God to hear our cry.

Parish Choir begins the new year with rehearsal on Wednesday, January 25th, at 7:00pm in Church. We are in need of servants who have singing experience in high school or college choir. See me to join, or email me!

Bell Choir: We own a 2 octave set of handbells. I would like to use them but I need some people to come and ring them. No experience is needed. We will learn together!

Instrumentalists: If you play an instrument (high school level or above) come see me and let's get you playing in church! Serving the Lord is awesome!

Patience...

Faith Formation Reminder:

Faith Formation sessions begin again on Monday, January 23rd, and Tuesday, January 24th.

7th and 8th grade Faith Formation begins again on January 24th, at 6:30pm. We'll see you all there!

Children's Liturgy of the Word

The New (Calendar) Year has begun, and the Children's Liturgy of the Word is picking up again! All children, pre-school aged – 2nd grade are invited to join us at the 11:30am Mass on Sundays!

Listen for Fr. Jerry to invite you and your friends to come to the front, process out, and go to hear the Word of God in a way better suited for young ears.

If you brought a canned good for the St. Vincent de Paul food pantry, bring it with you, and we'll take them all up when we re-join our moms, dads and grandparents!

As we enter into "Ordinary" Time,

we should not forget the season that we just left! The wonder and awe of Christmas should be remembered and relived each day. Too often our "ordinary" life takes over and our time seems to become just that - ordinary.

The church's "ordinary" time is really a patchwork of many different experiences, new jobs as well as the same old jobs, new classes in school as well as some that we might struggle at. Sometimes we face struggles from car accidents to deaths in the family, life altering and sometimes only life complicating events. All of these events make up our "ordinary" life.

We are called to Mass, to praise and worship the great "I AM", to thank God for all the blessings and sacrifices in our life, every experience we should be laying at the Altar when we are invited, when Fr. says, "Let us pray." When we enter into the bigger vision of Mass not just as individuals, or as a family, or as the Community of St. Jane Frances de Chantal, but as the WHOLE CHURCH, worldwide and even beyond our existential nature, as the whole communion of saints, we can begin to see the framework of what it is that we are a part of.

My "ordinary" is different from your "ordinary", but all of our "ordinaries" becomes quite the extra-ordinary. When we come to that realization that we each participate, in an extra-ordinary way, in each other's lives, to support (and sometimes to lean on) each other we begin to see the nature of "I AM".

I pray that you find the newness, wonder and awe of Christmas each and every day! Have an extraordinary "Ordinary Time"!

St. Vincent de Paul Thanks You

Through the generosity of our faith community, we were able to fill approximately 50 baskets with a Christmas meal! On Tuesday, December 20, 2016, in addition to the Giving Tree presents, the recipients were able to pick up a turkey or ham and all the fixings to provide home cooked meals for their families. This is a living example of "Corporal Works of Mercy" - Feed the hungry, give drink to the thirsty!

After filling these holiday baskets, however, our shelves are bare! With the winter season upon us and an increase in calls for food, we are in need of refilling our pantry. We are low on the following canned items: tuna, chicken, ham, baked beans, peas, carrots, beets, mixed vegetables, fruit and soups. Also peanut butter and jelly/jams, powered milk, cereal, jello, rice, macaroni & cheese, instant potatoes, pasta and cans/jars of spaghetti sauce. Cake mix and frosting are also welcome.

Please no canned corn or green beans at this time (we have these!) Your donations can be deposited in the baskets in the front of the church, given to the ushers or drop them off at the parish office.

Cash donations can be placed in the collection basket or parish office, please write St. Vincent de Paul on the envelope.

We are grateful for your continuing support. Let us continue to provide Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy throughout the New Year. God Bless you and your families.

HEALTH MINISTRY

January is GLAUCOMA MONTH. Glaucoma is an eye disease that has no symptoms, no warning signs and is a leading cause of vision loss and blindness if left untreated.

What is glaucoma? Glaucoma is a group of diseases that can damage the optic nerve in the eye. The optic nerve is the part of the eye that sends electrical impulses for sight to the brain.

What causes glaucoma? Clear fluid flows in and out of a small space at the front of the eye and keeps the tissues in the eye healthy. If this fluid drains too slowly, it puts pressure on the optic nerve and can cause glaucoma.

What are the symptoms of glaucoma? Often, there are no symptoms at first. Vision stays normal and there is no pain. But as the disease gets worse, side vision may begin to fail.

Who is at higher risk for glaucoma? Anyone can get glaucoma, but people at higher risk for glaucoma are: African Americans age 40 and older, all adults age 60 and older, those with family history of glaucoma, and also those with Diabetes, Hypertension, and previous eye injury.

How is glaucoma detected? An eye care professional can determine whether a person has glaucoma through a comprehensive dilated eye exam. During this exam, drops are put into the eyes to enlarge the pupils. The eye care professional is then able to see more of the inside of the eye to check for signs of damage to the optic nerve. Screening for eye pressure alone is not enough to detect glaucoma.

Does increased eye pressure mean that I have glaucoma? Not necessarily. Increased eye pressure means you are at risk for glaucoma, but does not mean you have the disease. A person has glaucoma only if the optic nerve is damaged.

How is glaucoma treated? Glaucoma cannot be cured, but treatment can help control the pressure in your eye and delay further damage to the optic nerve. The most common treatments include: medications, laser surgery, or traditional surgery. Treatment usually begins with medication and, if needed, laser surgery.

How can I protect my vision? Early detection and treatment are the best ways to control glaucoma before it causes permanent vision loss. If you are at higher risk for glaucoma, be sure to get a comprehensive dilated eye exam every one to two years.

To protect your vision from other risk factors, follow your doctor's instructions for managing diabetes and hypertension. And be sure to use protective eyewear in the workplace and during sports and recreational activities. See your eye care professional and get a dilated eye exam.

DIOCESAN REPRESENTATIVE

The week of January 23rd and the week of January 30th, Michael Lenz, a representative from our bulletin publisher, Diocesan Publications, will be seeking new and renewing parish bulletin advertisers. If you are interested in advertising, please call the parish office for more information.

Also enclosed in this weeks bulletin you will find a flyer about advertising in the St. Jane Frances de Chantal bulletins.

We feel this is an excellent opportunity for local businesses to increase their visibility in the community. Advertising in the bulletin allows the publication to be printed each week at no cost to the parish.
