FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME
February 4, 2018

Fr. Tony Sulkowski
Pastor
Ext. 102

FR. T'S TIDBITS:

We are in the midst of Ordinary time. What is Ordinary Time? The definition of Ordinary Time is taken from the Documents on the Liturgy. "Apart from those seasons having their own distinctive character, (eg. Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter), thirty-three or thirty-four weeks remain in the yearly cycle that do not celebrate a specific aspect of the mystery of Christ. Rather, especially on the Sundays, they are devoted to the mystery of Christ in all its aspects. This period is known as Ordinary Time."

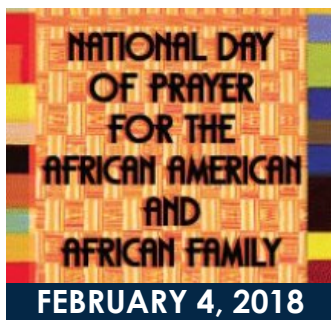

In our day to day life we celebrate all that God has blessed us with and the people with whom we share our gifts and talents. It is in our everyday life that we see and experience God. However, we must see with the eyes of faith the experiences of our life as God given. We are created in the image and likeness of God and we are called to project those experiences to others so that they too can see God's hand in their life.

One example I use often is the food baskets that we prepare for the needy at the holidays. It is very easy for us to give at those times of year. The need is always in the fore front of our mind at Thanksgiving, Christmas and Easter. However that need is year round, during the ordinary times of the year.

Ordinary Time is not all that ordinary. It can be a challenging season, unlike Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter, seasons that already draw us in and point us toward celebrating a specific aspect of the life of Christ. In the season of Ordinary Time the onus or responsibility is placed on us. We are challenged to see God in our daily life, to celebrate the Word made flesh - to be disciples of the Lord seeing the Lord's presence in all aspects of our life and in those we come in contact with.

Bon mot: What you have to do and the way you have to do it is incredibly simple. Whether you are willing to do it is another matter. - Peter Drucker.

Carpe Diem,
Fr. Tony

GOD OF MERCY & LOVE, we place our African American and African Families before You today. May we be proud of our history and never forget those who paid a great price for our liberation. Bless us one by one and keep our hearts and minds fixed on higher ground. Help us to live for you and not for ourselves, and may we cherish and proclaim the gift of life. Bless our parents, guardians and grandparents, relatives and friends. Give us the amazing grace to be the salt of the earth and the light of the world. Help us, as Your children, to live in such a way that the beauty and greatness of authentic love is reflected in all that we say and do . Give a healing anointing to those less fortunate, especially the motherless, the fatherless, the broken, the sick and the lonely. Bless our departed family members and friends. May they be led into the light of Your dwelling place where we will never grow old, where we will share the fullness of redemption and shout the victory for all eternity. This we ask In the Precious Name of Jesus, our Savior and Blessed Assurance. Amen. Holy Mary, Mother of Our Families, pray for us. ~ Fr. Jim Goode, OFM

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"Nourished by God's Word and the Eucharist, St. Jane Frances de Chantal Parish is a welcoming Catholic community dedicated to living and proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

Laurie Hall
Pastoral Assoc. &
Worship Coord.
Ext. 104

You may notice this weekend that we are using the “Christmas and Easter” communion cups. Our common communion cups are beautiful implements used in the celebration of Eucharist and have served us well, but they are in need of a bit of refreshing. The process of refreshing the cups is called “replating” and is an expense that comes up approximately every 7 years.

We would like to manage the cost of replating by offering parishioners the opportunity to “sponsor” a cup. The sponsored cup will be engraved on the bottom with the name of a loved one. It is a nice way to honor a loved one’s memory or to leave a lasting reminder of thanksgiving to God.

The price to sponsor a cup is $250.00. The cup will be engraved on the bottom with the sponsor’s choice of one of two messages:

In memory of Jane Doe or In thanksgiving for John Doe

These cups will continue to be used for many years and will serve the entire community of St. Jane Frances. If you would like to participate, simply come into the office, complete a sponsor form, and leave a check made out to the parish for $250. The cups will arrive back by Easter when we will begin to use them at all weekend Masses. The deadline to submit paperwork is Sunday, February 18th so we can have the cups back in time for Easter.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me. Thank you for your kindness and generosity!

Peace, Laurie

There is a wonderful group of parishioners here at St. Jane Frances who pray for the needs of our parish, our Church, our country, as well as local and personal needs. The Intercessory Prayer Team is happy to pray for your individual needs as well. Our Prayer Intention Box is located near the votive candles in the worship space and has paper and pen for you to record your needs.

If you are someone who feels called to hold others up in prayer, consider joining the Intercessory Prayer Team. They gather for prayer on the first Monday of each month at 1:30pm and on the third Monday of each month at 7:00pm in Room B. If you would like to join this team, please contact Laurie Hall. All are welcome!

ANNIVERSARY MASS 2018

Encore Remarriage Workshops

Considering getting married again?

Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan (CCSEM) can help you and your future spouse welcome Christ into your union, improve your communication skills, and position your relationship to grow stronger over time!

Adhering to Church teachings and led by Dr. Janusz Wrobel, a skilled CCSEM therapist, Encore remarriage workshops focus on replacing communication styles from the previous relationship with new ones based on trust and friendship. Couples bringing children into their new union will benefit from additional content on addressing issues that can arise in a blended family and talking with children about the pending marriage.

About the facilitator

Dr. Janusz Wrobel
 PhD, LLP, LPC

has served as a psychotherapist with Catholic Charities of Southeast Michigan since 2008. His expertise in mental health counseling with adolescents and adults includes therapy for anxiety, depression, substance abuse, and self-esteem issues. Dr. Wrobel also works with couples, facilitates family and marital therapy, offers immigrant stress support, and provides Christian counseling.

His treatment philosophy is based on his belief that genetic predisposition is not a destiny but is a risk. "I believe in the freedom to shape our fate and that we have the power of refusing to be a toy of fate," said Wrobel. "One's responsibility for choices, heroism of admitting mistakes, and wisdom of learning from those mistakes creates the basic ingredients of apt use of the freedom given us by God. Our weaknesses are not our destiny—the boldness of overcoming them is."

Dr. Wrobel's professional history includes serving with the IMPACT Employee Assistance Work/Life Program, Evergreen Counseling, Change Is Possible Counseling Services, North Suburban Counseling Associates, Oakland University Graham Counseling Center, Polish Psychological Clinic, Metro Medical Practice, and Balance and Harmony Counseling.

Dr. Wrobel is the author of Contact: The Tale of Human Longing for Fulfilling Communication and Language and Schizophrenia.

The next Encore workshop is Saturday, February 24, 2018.

The four-hour session for all couples starts at 10:00 am, with a 30-minute lunch break at noon and concludes at 2:30 pm.

An additional two-hour session for couples with children continues from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm.

All sessions are at the Catholic Charities office in Royal Oak, located at 1424 E. 11 Mile Road.

The cost for the four-hour sessions is $160, or a total of $200 for the extended session for couples with children.

To learn more and register, call 248-548-4044 ext. 3100 or email crewsh@ccsem.org.

SAVE THE DATE for the next Encore workshop at CCSEM's location in Royal Oak: Saturdays: April 28, September 8, and December 1, 2018.

THEOLOGY ON TAP*

Thursday, February 8th | 6:30pm-8:30pm

Atwater Brewery

237 Joseph Campau Ave. | Detroit 48207

SPEAKER: Sr. Solanus Casey Danda, SOLT
TOPIC: Ignatian Discernment of Spirits

Are you confused about God's will in your life, or are you feeling far from Him? Does prayer feel dry to you? Do you feel indifferent about your faith? Perhaps you're experiencing great joy & peace, or you feel on fire for your faith & close to God. Are you facing an important decision? The discernment of spirits is the art of sifting through spiritual experiences in order to distinguish what is from the Lord and what is not.

Sr. Solanus Casey Danda, SOLT will be talking with us about using St. Ignatius' Rules for Discernment of Spirits to help us to become more aware of the inner movements of the heart, to recognize which are from God, and to discern how to respond to them, which can be especially helpful when making important decisions. (*Theology on Tap is a program for young adults ages 18-35.)

ABOUT THE GOSPEL:

In Galilee, Jesus cured the sick and drove evil from the town. Everyone wanted to meet Jesus and see him heal people. The Gospel also reminds us that Jesus took time to pray so he could carry out his healing ministry.

IN CHURCH:

When the Prayers of the Faithful are read, listen carefully for the names of people who are sick and pray specifically for them.

QUESTIONS FOR THE WEEK:

- ◆ How do you feel when you see people who are sick or struggling?
- ◆ Who do you see, that serves the Christian Community in a way that you can serve?
- ◆ When have you acted like Jesus? When have you been there for someone who is sick? How can you serve others at school or at work?

FAMILY PRAYER:

Jesus, help us to do your work of feeding the hungry, caring for the sick, and comforting others.

QUESTION TO ASK YOURSELF NEXT WEEK,

IN PREPARATION FOR MASS:

- ◆ Who does Jesus help in your life? Where can you help? At home? At school?
- ◆ What does it mean to serve others? Do you know someone who serves others?

This weekend, as I listen to the Gospel and get frustrated with the 2nd reading, I'd like to put myself in the shoes of Simon's (aka Peter's) Mother-in-Law, sick in bed with a fever. The last time I had a fever, I was miserable and I made those around me miserable. When I threw out my back, there were weeks of excruciating pain, indescribable to anyone unless they have been at that point, followed by months of manageable tearing the phonebook in half pain, to constant rehab that goes on each and every morning when I wake up.

Oh what I would have done to have someone show up and heal me quickly! Or did God put that individual or group of people in place for me and I just didn't realize it? Months of chiropractic visits to loosen muscles I neglected and pushed too far, to teach me a price is paid for what I do and have done to my body. Patient family members helping me stand, helping me sit, walking next to me to be sure I make it ten feet to a different chair or to lay down. Friends who would call to check-in and see how I was doing. Friends and family who would give me easy work to keep me going through those lean months.

I had to learn. Had Jesus come along and healed me, I very well might have never seen the people who were right in front of my eyes, or known the blessings that He had already bestowed. I'll admit it, I am a bit dense, obstinate, and rigid. Things "should" happen a particular way and that's the way I make them happen, but the world around me doesn't beat to the rhythm of Ben's drum. (Thank God for these huge favors!) God knows me better than I know myself. He knows that Ben needs experiential learning, hands-on, do it a few times until you figure it out lessons. He knows it takes time with me.

I suspect Jesus didn't want people to come to Him to just get healed, because soon, that's all they'd do, never learning their lesson - never learning how not to get into those predicaments in the first place. Jesus also wants the whole world to experience the saving power of God, not just one small group of people. So Jesus wakes up early, prays about it, and only then does He go beyond this small village.

St. Paul wrote that he felt entrusted by God to share the Gospel, the Good News - the news that we no longer need to be weighed down by sin. The news that Jesus came for me, for you, for everyone, so we do not have to pay the rightly deserved price for our sins, but rather we get the opportunity to learn, to change, to feel forgiveness and to show and teach others the same. We are allotted more time to move our hearts back towards God and to walk by our sisters' and brothers' sides to help them those last few feet. Sometimes we do this willingly. Other times we get plucked from the crowd, like Simon of Cyrene, to aid a stranger in bearing their cross.

I now think I "get" the 2nd reading (I Cor 9:16-19, 22-23). If I use my gifts to help others come closer to God, not for money (or power), but for that other person's sake, I am rewarded with so much more than I can ever imagine. Remember the last verse of St. Paul's letter that we read today, "All this I do for the sake of the gospel, so that I too may have a share in it." I want to share happiness and great experiences with people that come my way. Stop and shake a hand, give a smile, a hug, a wish-you-well sentiment. Let's not be in such a hurry to get to the next thing on the list. Jesus granted us time, let's use it to further His mission, and enjoy the journey. I'll see you around, God willing!

Ordinary Time is only with us for another week and a half. Have you made it extraordinary? Stop and say hello to someone at Mass, that you have seen, but don't know the name of. Introduce yourself and make a new friend.

As Lent is around the corner, let's begin to think of what we can do for Lent instead of what we can give up. Maybe pray an extra 5 minutes a day? Meet someone new every Sunday, and find our new friends from the previous weeks? There is so much that we can do as a community to make everyone's lives a little happier!

Thank you for making my life better!

TRAVELING CHALICE:
 A PROGRAM OF PRAYER FOR PRIESTLY & RELIGIOUS VOCATIONS

Parishioners are asked to take the chalice home and display it in a place of honor. We ask them to pray each night for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. This week our parish gratefully acknowledges the for hosting our Traveling Chalice. If you would like to participate in The Traveling Chalice Program please contact Ray Sroka at 586-979-7879.

Laundry help is needed!

We are looking for one or more people to assist with washing and ironing of the Altar Servers' albs. This is done just a few times a year. The albs can be taken in small batches or all at once. Albs would be picked up after the 11:30am Sunday Mass or anytime Monday and returned Thursday morning so they are ready for weekend Masses. If you can help, please contact Laurie Hall. Thank you in advance!

SPONSOR OF THE WEEK

We want to thank Pete of the

Flaming Grill

for advertising in the St. Jane Frances de Chantal bulletin.

We ask our parishioners to support our advertisers as they are the ones that help make our bulletin possible.
