FR. T'S TIDBITS: CHRIST IS ALIVE

In response to the October 2018 Synod on Young People, Pope Francis issued an apostolic exhortation titled, *Christ is Alive**, (Christus Vivit). (As an aside, on the pilgrimage I led to Italy last October, our group had the opportunity to attend the opening Mass for the Synod for young people with Pope Francis in St. Peter's square.) The document is reader friendly and written as a letter to a specific group of people—namely young people.

I had the opportunity to read the Pope's apostolic exhortation and found it to be a wonderful document that encourages young people to actively renew the Church. The document defines the age of young people as between the ages of 16-29. We often hear that young people are the future of the Church. In the document, Pope Francis, reminds and challenges young people by stating that they are the "now of God."

In paragraph 64 of Christ is Alive, Pope Francis explains the meaning of "the now of God." He says, "we cannot just say that young people are the future of the world. They are its present, even now; they are helping to enrich it. Young people are no longer children. They are at a time of life when they begin to assume a number of responsibilities, sharing alongside adults in the growth of the family, society and the church. Yet the times are changing, leading us to ask— what are today's young people really like? What is going on in their lives?"

Throughout the document, the Pope encourages young people to share the talents and gifts that God has bestowed upon them to renew the church. This document is written and directed to young people. I would encourage young people to read this document and discern what your gifts and talents are and how they will enrich the church. The Pope ends with a wish— that "young people keep running the race, as the church needs your momentum, your enthusiasm, your intuition, your faith."

As we journey towards the Feast of Pentecost may we call down the Holy Spirit to enlighten our hearts and minds in our response to the needs and life of the church. I recall the words of Cardinal John Dearden as he returned from Rome after attending the Second Vatican Council. He would often say, "the more difficult the task, the more the Spirit will be given."

Bon mot: Difficulties are God's errands; and when we are sent upon them we should esteem it a proof of God's confidence--- as a compliment from him.---- Henry Ward Beecher

(*You can go to the USCCB website to download the document.)

MAY CROWNING

Please join us on Tuesday, May 7th at 6:45pm as we honor our mother, Mary, and celebrate her by crowning the statue in our gathering area. If you haven't experienced a "May Crowning" before, it is a simple celebration where a statue representing our "holy queen enthroned above" is crowned with blossoms while parishioners sing Marian hymns and recite prayers associated with Mary. The crowning will be followed by Mass at 7:00pm in the main Worship space.

RCIA – Congratulations to our neophytes (those who just entered the Church)! At the Easter Vigil on Saturday, April 20th, we celebrated the sacraments of initiation for Melanie Gaynor, Kaylyn Giang and James Sperry. We also celebrated the confirmations of Savannah Leone and Shane Bellew. It was a deeply moving experience to witness adults entering into the Catholic Church through the sacraments – praise the Lord! We will continue to gather on Sundays to break open the Word and to discern where God is calling each of our neophytes to ministry.

Melanie, Kaylyn, James, Savannah and I wish to thank each of you who provided cards of welcome – they were very much appreciated and truly served to welcome and congratulate!

A very big thank you to the wonderful team that provided the reception following the Vigil – the decorations were festive and the food fabulous! So wonderful to see the hall filled with people celebrating our neophytes.

Finally, I ask that you continue to pray for God to send us more seekers! We can start the RCIA process at any time. If you know of anyone interested in learning more about the process of sacramental preparation, please direct them to me via e-mail or phone. Thank you!

With Deepest Sympathy

YOU CAN MAKE A CHANGE FOR LIFE

Have you ever been told by a health care professional that you:

- ◆ Are at risk for getting diabetes?
- ◆ Have prediabetes?
- ◆ Have borderline diabetes?
- ◆ Have high blood sugar or glucose?
- ◆ Had gestational diabetes?

You may be at high risk for type 2 diabetes, but there is something you can do about it.

The Centers for Disease Control and Prevention-led National Diabetes Prevention Program can help you make a change for life. This program helps you learn how to change your lifestyle to prevent type 2 diabetes. Groups meet for 16 weekly sessions and six monthly follow-up sessions with a trained Lifestyle Coach.

For more information or to see if you are at risk, contact Debbie at 586-977-8080, ext. 107 or meet with our Parish Nurse at our next Blood Pressure Screening on May 18th & 19th before Mass.

"Plarn Party" to make Mats for the Homeless

If you don't know what "plarn" is—join us and find out!

WHEN: Wednesday, May 15th: 6:00pm-7:30pm

Join us at whatever time you are able, whether for all or a portion of session. Attend yourself, bring a friend or bring the family (children 4th grade and up are welcome with their parent).

WHERE: Father Page Activity Center, St. Jane Frances de Chantal

WHAT: A hands-on "working" session for young and old! These gatherings will allow anyone newly curious or already involved to ...

- ◆ Work together in making the plastic yarn used to crochet mats (we will create a "human assembly line").
- ◆ Build camaraderie with fellow parishioners as we share stories and tips while we work.
- ◆ For those interested: learn how to crochet with "starter mats" that simply need to be completed. A fun way to practice new skills and help the homeless (supplies provided).

Beverages and snacks provided!

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Next Sunday, the Church throughout the world prays for vocations. Will you make a special effort to ask the Lord for more vocations to the priesthood & religious life?

- ◆ Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- ◆ Keep our parish priests in your prayers throughout the week.
- ◆ Encourage your children, grandchildren, or other young people to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- ◆ Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

GIVE A GIFT FOR LIFE

Say "I Love & Appreciate You" to Mom, Grandma, Aunt, Friend, Neighbor and all the special ladies in your lives! The weekend of May 11th & 12th, Right to Life will be providing fresh long stemmed carnations in various spring colors for a $2.00 donation in an effort to promote respect for life at all stages. Your support of this most worthy cause is greatly appreciated.

ABOUT THE GOSPEL:

In Sunday's Gospel, Jesus' friends are fishing when someone calls out to them and tells them to lower their nets again. They catch many fish! This helps the disciples recognize that Jesus is the one calling to them. Jesus makes them breakfast and eats with them.

IN CHURCH:

Jesus fed his friends breakfast. During Mass, pay attention to how Jesus feeds us through the Word of God and Holy Communion.

QUESTIONS FOR THE WEEK:

- ◆ How do you recognize Jesus in other people? In the Mass? In some other way?
- ◆ Who else do you know whose works continue to live on, even though they are gone from this life?
- ◆ When you eat a family meal, do you recognize Jesus in each person sitting at the meal with you?
- ◆ Everyone plays a part in our Christian Community; what part do you play?

FAMILY PRAYER:

Help us to recognize the physical and emotional needs of others and to "feed" them when they need nourishment and encouragement.

QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF

NEXT WEEK, IN PREPARATION

FOR MASS:

- ◆ Who helps us stay safe?
- ◆ What is a shepherd? How is Jesus like a shepherd?
- ◆ What do you take care of? Do you have a pet at home, in your classroom? Who takes care of them?

Happy Easter. He is Risen! Truth can be a difficult thing to grasp. As a matter of fact, as hard as I try to put into words a "brief" explanation of truth, I run into limitations of space, paper, time and even my own understanding. I have started this weeks writing 4-5 different times and have had to put each of these aside, because brevity escapes me when I attempt to describe truth.

In our Gospel reading, the Apostles encounter Jesus again, along the shores of the Sea of Tiberius (the Sea of Galilee). From the accounts in the Bible, 7 of the Apostles (those who were sent on the mission to spread the Word of God to the world) had gone back to a comfort zone for themselves - the trade taught to them by their fathers. They went back to the water to fish. How many times do I get uncomfortable, doing the work that I do, and want to just go back to the "comfortable" thing—machines and tools. Building is an easily controlled environment for me. I start at "A", progress through B, C, D and E and end up with an "F"—a finished project. The voice of God, in our lives, calls each of us to more than our comfort zones.

Jesus plucked His disciples from their comfort zones, challenged them, led them for a while, then sent them into a strange new world. A world full of temptation, a world full of "status quo", a world that says, "It's Okay; you are Okay." But Jesus' teachings resonated in the minds of the Apostles. They began to understand what Jesus meant when they heard (in last Sunday's Gospel),

*"Peace be with you.
 As the Father has sent me, so I send you." John 20:21*

Jesus moved them (and continues to move us) beyond being okay! We are called to be good. Good people, good Christians, good parents, good students, good workers... Good. We are not to be mediocre, lukewarm or just okay. We are to be good at what we do and share what we do with others. Very few of us will be "the best" really and truly, "the best" is a fleeting title that will disappear. It is a man made term to let us feel good about ourselves. Being good resonates, it resounds again and again. It is what makes us virtuous.

Our first reading this week, is about the blossoming Christian Community. The Apostles were brought before the Sanhedrin (the council of elders) and told to stop preaching in Jesus' name and they left,

"...rejoicing that they had been found worthy to suffer dishonor for the sake of the name." Acts 5:41b

Where are you? Are you comfortable? Have you stretched outside of your comfort zone? How can you stretch outside of your comfort zone at work, at home, at school, at the parish, in your faith? Can you continue the mission of the first apostles, spreading the Word of God to the noisy world, the world that wants and longs for distraction? How can you "be good" for the world full of so much that is not good?

This is part of the "truth" that Jesus was leading His disciples towards. The truth that God is, was and always will be. The truth that we are God's hands and feet in the world. Can you be a single ray of light for someone this week, to help them see God in all that is around? Can you be Truth for someone?

A BIG THANK YOU to Delphine Kanaby for creating some lovely and lasting mementos for our Confirmandi & 1st Communicants this year.

Thank you for sharing your beautiful gifts with our young disciples!
