FEAST OF CORPUS CHRISTI

JUNE 23, 2019

Fr. Tony Sulkowski
Pastor
Ext. 102

FR. T'S TIDBITS: LEGACY

In his book, Good Leaders ask Great Questions, John Maxwell came across a poem called The Bridge Builder by Will Allen Dromgoole. It encapsulates the attitude of legacy-building leaders.

It says:

An old man walking a lonesome road,
 Came at the evening, cold and gray,
 To a chasm vast and wide and steep,
 With water running cold and deep,
 The old man crossed in the twilight dim,
 The rolling stream had no fear for him,
 But he turned when safe on the other side,
 And built a bridge to span the tide.
 "Old man," said a fellow traveler near,
 "you are wasting your strength with building here."
 Your journey will end with the passing day,
 You never again will pass this way.
 You've crossed the chasm, deep and wide—
 Why would you build the bridge at eventide?
 The builder lifted his old gray head,
 "Good friend, in the path I have come," he said,
 "There followeth after me today,"
 A youth whose feet must pass this way.
 The chasm that was nought to him,
 To that fair-haired youth may a pitfall be.
 He too must cross in the twilight dim—
 Good friend, I am building this bridge for him.

Bon mot: The earth is a stage which God and nature do with actors fill.—Thomas Heywood

HAPPY FEAST OF THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST (CORPUS CHRISTI)!

Here's a little history about today's feast day, from the Sourcebook for Sunday, Seasons, and Weekdays, Liturgy Training Publications:

"This Eucharistic day began in a quiet Belgian convent in the thirteenth century, with the vision of a holy nun, St. Juliana. In her vision, she saw the moon, full and bright. It was glorious, except that one part of its disk was in shadow. The meaning of the vision was then revealed to her: the moon represented the liturgical year and the shadow, a missing feast in honor of the Blessed Sacrament. Juliana spoke to her confessor about what she had seen. Amazingly, within thirty-five years, Pope Urban IV had established the feast of Corpus Christi, the Body of Christ, in the Church's universal calendar. Hundreds of years later, in 1849, Pope Pius IX added the Feast of the Precious Blood celebrated on July 1st. Following the Second Vatican Council, the two liturgies became one solemnity in honor of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Corpus Christi is an expression of our faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. This celebration is also outward looking, carrying the liturgy out of the church and into the streets. We come together in all our diversity and we celebrate our unity."

Here is a prayer for the week:

God of the covenant, we are grateful that you have called us to be your people, in deep connection with you and with one another. Our participation in the Eucharist confirms this calling and our commitment to live it daily. Help us to remember this each time we approach the eucharistic table. We ask this in the name of your Son, in whose body and blood we partake.

Amen.

Today's Feast Day is also a great time to recognize all those who serve as Eucharistic Ministers. By offering the Eucharist, you recognize the Body of Christ in those to whom you minister and, ultimately, you act as the Body of Christ by fully participating in the life of the parish and the wider community. We are grateful for your ministry. We are also always in need of additional people to serve in this ministry. Please contact me if you feel called to serve.

RELIGIOUS FREEDOM
 WEEK

In the face of our country’s challenges, and challenges within the Church herself, Catholics find strength in the hope of Jesus Christ. We want to share that hope with everyone.

Religious freedom gives us the space to carry out the mission that Jesus has entrusted to the Church. Religious freedom means that Catholics, and all people of goodwill, are free to seek the truth and to live in accordance with the truth, and so to strengthen our common life as a nation.

Beginning June 22, the Feast of Saint Thomas More and Saint John Fisher, the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops celebrates Religious Freedom Week. In the midst of our current challenges, join us as we seek the kingdom and find Strength in Hope.

“In the pilgrimage of this life, hidden with Christ in God and free from enslavement to wealth, they aspire to those riches which remain forever and generously dedicate themselves wholly to the advancement of the kingdom of God and to the reform and improvement of the temporal order in a Christian spirit. Among the trials of this life they find strength in hope, convinced that ‘the sufferings of the present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory to come that will be revealed in us’ (Rom. 8:18).”

As we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ, this weekend, I recall my need for this day of worship. I do not have any particular devotion to the Eucharist, but I do see my need for God’s mercy which is given through His Son especially, and particularly, through this Sacrament that we are allowed to receive each week. Last week, while attempting to accomplish the writing of my article, I had this week’s readings up on my computer, so those of you confused by parts of what I had written, my apologies! While this mistake is not “sinful” in nature, I am reminded that sin begins in simple, non-sinful actions and begins to work its way to the point where we will choose a sinful action, through laziness, or even ignorance, we move away from the Good that God’s Plan has set for us. Through Christ’s sacrifice, we have been granted the ability to once again enter into the kingdom of God.

This upcoming week, beginning at 9:00am, Monday – Friday, young disciples from our parish and friends who are visiting us, will be joining us for our Vacation Bible School. We learn how “God is Good” to us through the sharing of stories from our faith history, and how, through Christ’s sacrifice for us, we are granted God’s mercy for our mistakes. Please pray for all of our volunteers, who have already put in hours and hours of preparation time, and for our youngest disciples, that they will hear Jesus’ saving message of hope. As you think of it this week, wherever you are during the hours of 9:00am-Noon, say a prayer for everyone at ROAR! - our Vacation Bible School theme. Pray that God will work in their hearts, and then, through them, families will be lifted into God’s Loving Grace.

As Melchizedek prayed for and over Abram, as Paul reminded us of Christ’s prayer at the Last Supper, and as Jesus prayed during the feeding of the multitudes, let each of us remember to pray, giving thanks to God for His blessings, asking Him for His Mercy, and praising Him for His Goodness.

Thank you for your prayers this week! We’ll see you next Saturday at our Parish Visioning Day from 10:30am-2:00pm in our Activity Center!

PETER'S PENCE COLLECTION IS NEXT WEEKEND, JUNE 29-30

The Peter's Pence Collection has ancient roots. The early Christians would provide material support that the disciples—those preaching the Gospel—could distribute to those in need (see Acts 4:34-35, 11:29). Today, the Peter's Pence Collection is the way we, as members of the Catholic Church, unite ourselves to the concerns of the Holy Father. Donations to this annual collection support the charitable works of Pope Francis for the relief of those most in need.

Please pray for the men and women serving our country in the Armed Services that they may return home safely to family and friends. We remember particularly:
