THIS WEEK'S JERRY-ATRICS

Perhaps the hardest reality to accept in life is the unalterable fact that everyone and everything that is precious to us will, in some way, be taken away. Kids grow up and leave home, friends move away, loved ones die, our health deteriorates, and eventually, we die. Moreover, even what is precious to us in terms of faith and values suffers in the same way; things change, thoughts and feelings shift, rock foundations that once anchored us, and so we thought could never corrode, end up crumbling, and we are left wondering what we really can believe in and trust.

Happily, this is only half of the equation. Everything we lose is eventually given back to us, and in a deeper and fuller way. The kids who moved away become adults and begin parenting a new generation; new bonds of friendship are formed, we reconnect in a deeper and more permanent way to our loved ones who have died, even failing health and death itself opens us up to a place where we land on bedrock, on a foundation so secure that it can never be shaken again.

This pattern is found in scripture for God's chosen people. After arriving in "the Promised Land" it took a number of generations to unite the twelve tribes of Israel and build a temple in Jerusalem as a center for worship. The great kings, David and Solomon, accomplished this, and the people were left with a great sense of security, both politically and religiously. They felt strong, safe, and secure. God had promised them a land, a country, a kingdom of their own, and now they were in possession of what God had promised to them. God's chosen people found self-confidence and assurance in God's providence for them. In other words, God's promise was as good as gold.

Unfortunately what happened was that complacency settled in among God's people. The Assyrians came and conquered Palestine. They deported those of Jewish descent to Babylon, killed the king, and knocked down the temple to its last stone. With the loss of their land, king, and temple, the bottom fell out in every way imaginable. Everything that had once been the anchors of security was taken away from them. The very existence of God came into question. How do you continue to believe, trust, and live in joy when everything of value is taken away from you?

God's answer to this question was this: You will find me again when you search in a deeper way for me, with your whole heart, your whole mind, and your whole soul. God offers to us that same answer today whenever we feel betrayed, orphaned, or disoriented in any way.

This is a very deep and extremely difficult lesson for us to comprehend and accept. Everything that is not God, no matter how precious and wonderful, will be taken away from us in this life. Why? The pure and simple reason is that what we believe gives us self assurance, happiness, and security is not God. All that we cling to, value, and hold on tightly to will, sooner or later, be purged, and we will be left with only one sacred possession - God. In the end it is God, and God alone, that we really need.

JUST A NOTE

Greetings All,

This Sunday, I am filling in for a colleague at Gesu Parish in Detroit. The Mass Mob is at their church today and he is in South Africa. This is something I committed myself to almost a year ago and I am not sure I got the good shake on this deal! All this aside, our organist today, Cathy Prowse, is a dear friend of mine and the wife of my organ teacher. She is a retired music teacher for Dearborn Schools and a wonderful person. Please give her a great St. Jane welcome!

There are a few exciting new music opportunities I invite you to consider. First, I would like to assemble a children's choir for our 4:00pm Mass on Christmas. Rehearsals for this choir will start December 2, 2017 and will run from 10:15am – 11:00am. Second, I would like to gather ringers for a bell choir. Rehearsals for the bell choir will start on Saturday, November 11, 2017 and will run from 3:30pm - 4:30pm; these rehearsals will happen every other week. Lastly, I would love to collaborate with other instrumentalists in the parish. It would be nice for me to know what you play and how you can contribute to the music ministry at St. Jane Frances. Do we have any guitarists, percussionists, trumpeters, or string players in the pews? Send me a note if you are interested!

Have a blessed week!

CAPUCHIN HEALING SERVICE

The Capuchin Friars of St. Bonaventure are coming to St. Jane Frances de Chantal on Tuesday, October 24th for a traditional Blessing of the Sick service. This will not be a Mass, but will be in place of the regularly scheduled Tuesday evening Mass with Anointing.

The friars will use a relic of the True Cross to bless all who are in need of healing, either in mind, body, or spirit. When Venerable Fr. Solanus Casey was at St. Bonaventure's in Detroit, he would often help and bless those seeking healing. This service is regularly available at St. Bonaventure Chapel which is attached to the Solanus Casey Center, but we are making it available to our parish and our neighbors on this occasion.

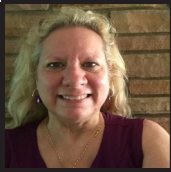

Please join us on Tuesday, October 24th at 7:00pm to offer up our trials, pains, and suffering, and be blessed with a relic of the True Cross.

ALTAR SERVER TRAINING

October 28th, 2017 | 1:00pm - 3:00pm

For ages 3rd grade & up. An altar server is a minister to the priest and is one of the most visible ministries in the liturgy. It is also a great opportunity to really learn about the Mass. Join us on October 28th and train to be an altar server! Whether you are new to the ministry or have been serving for a long time, you can come to learn more about altar serving. All returning altar servers are encouraged to attend. Food will be served.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

ULTRASOUND MACHINE PROGRAM

In July 2008, the Knights of Columbus Supreme Council instituted the Ultrasound Machine Program. The purpose of the program is to purchase a brand new ultrasound machine for a Pro-Life Women's Clinic. For each new machine purchased by a Knights of Columbus Council, District, or State Council, the Supreme Council will pay half of the cost of the machine.

The ultrasound machine is used to show the image of a child to the mother. If a woman is shown the image of her unborn child, there is an 80% plus chance that she will decide to keep the baby rather than terminate if she is considered 'abortion minded'.

This is why the St. Jane Frances de Chantal Knights of Columbus Council 13340 is having a drive to raise money to purchase an ultrasound machine. The weekend of October 21st & 22nd, we will be giving out "Baby Bottles" to our parish brothers and sisters to fill with their offering and return them within a three week period. Please help us to make this program a success. This is a program we will be repeating each year in October, the Respect Life Month, in our efforts to promote life.
