FR. T'S TIDBITS: THANK GOD AHEAD OF TIME.

Blessed Solanus Casey was known to encourage those who came to visit him with the words, "Thank God ahead of time." Indeed we have much to be grateful for, not only at Thanksgiving time, but every day of the year. I truly believe the point that Blessed Solanus Casey was trying to get across to us with those five simple words is that we must always be aware of the blessings that God showers upon us each and every day.

I share with you a Thanksgiving prayer as we all gather with family and friends to share a meal and enjoy each other's company.

A THANKSGIVING PRAYER

O God, you have fulfilled our founding fathers' faith in your divine providence by making and keeping us a land rich in the abundance of your creation. Freedom, justice and universal brotherhood and sisterhood are for us our precious heritage, but for countless men and women, in our midst and all over the world, they are still only a dream.

May we be faithful in sharing this heritage with the living and transmit it to a people still unborn. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

On behalf of the parish team and staff I wish you and your families a restful and joy-filled Thanksgiving Day. I have always said, It's not what is on the table that is important, but who is seated at the table that is most important. Together we will build up the Body of Christ. One phrase you will hear from time to time is one that I use often: "It is God's work that we are doing, not our own." Keeping that phrase in mind we can see how we are a part of God's greater plan.

Bon mot: In everything give thanks.---1 Thessalonians 5:18

Have a great day!

Carpe Diem,
Fr. Tony

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"Nourished by God's Word and the Eucharist, St. Jane Frances de Chantal Parish is a welcoming Catholic community dedicated to living and proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

Laurie Hall
Pastoral Associate
& Worship Coord.
Ext. 104

As we prepare to celebrate Thanksgiving this week, I am preparing to celebrate one year of ministry with this community. Blessings abound! I give thanks for the parish of St. Jane Frances de Chantal, the parishioners, the staff and Fr. Tony. I thank God for bringing me to this community of faith, and, thanking God ahead of time, I am thankful for all we will continue to do in praise and service of our Lord.

Please join us on Tuesday, November 20th at 7:00pm for a Thanksgiving Mass. Below is a prayer of gratitude you can pray as you gather to enjoy your Thanksgiving meal.

Thank you, Father, for having created us and given us to each other in the human family. Thank you for being with us in all our joys and sorrows, for your comfort in our sadness, your companionship in our loneliness. Thank you for yesterday, today, tomorrow and for the whole of our lives. Thank you for friends, for health and for grace. May we live this and every day conscious of all that has been given to us.

From The Catholic Prayer Book, compiled by Msgr. Michael Buckley

LOOKING AHEAD:

THE SEASON OF ADVENT IS NEARLY UPON US! Advent begins on Sunday, December 2nd. We have several ways to prepare for and engage in this season:

ADVENT CANDLE SETS FOR HOME USE - Available for purchase in the Parish office for $3/set.

"LITTLE BOOKS" ADVENT EDITION – The Little Blue Books are available in the Gathering Space for your Advent preparations. These little books offer a great way to prepare your heart for the Lord. There is a basket with a suggested donation of $1.

LECTIO DIVINA – Join us for this spiritual prayer practice, each Wednesday in Advent at 7:00pm. We use the Gospel reading from the Sunday liturgies during our prayers. During this hour, time will be taken to: read the scripture, reflect on the meaning, respond through prayer, rest in God and respond in action. All are welcome.

ADORATION – Tuesday, December 11th, from 1:00pm to 6:00pm in the Chapel. If you can, please sign up in the Parish Office.

ADVENT MASS PROCESSIONS - Looking for parishioners to join in our Advent Mass celebrations! This year our parishioners are invited to carry the Advent candle in the opening procession at each Mass. If you and/or your family would like to take part in this ritual, please sign up for one of the Masses during Advent (December 1st through December 23rd). A sign-up sheet will be available at the Welcome Desk until all slots are filled. You can also sign-up by calling me at the parish number or emailing at lhall@sifparish.org. We are hoping to see many smiling faces participating this year!

Congratulations to Fr. Tony on the occasion of his 32nd Anniversary of Ordination this Thursday, November 22nd. It is always good to pray for our priests. Here is a prayer from the USCCB that you can use in thanking God for the gift of priests and, especially, Fr. Tony:

Gracious and loving God, we thank you for the gift of our priests, especially Fr. Tony as he celebrates his 32nd anniversary of ordination. Through him, we experience your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation. Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus. Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel. Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns as our Eternal Priest. Amen.

ABOUT THE GOSPEL:

This Sunday's Gospel is a reminder we should prepare for Jesus' coming every day. Jesus tells us that we don't know when He will return, so we must be ready at all times.

IN CHURCH:

Pay attention during Mass to see how the priest prepares the altar—and all of us—for Jesus' coming to us in Holy Communion.

QUESTIONS FOR THE WEEK:

- ◆ What can you do, every day this week to show Jesus that He is welcome in your home and heart?
- ◆ How do you show love at home? At school? With your friends? At work?
- ◆ Do you have any fears? Do those fears control you, or do you have control over your fears?
- ◆ Why did Jesus send us the Holy Spirit? Is there anything that we need to fear about Jesus' coming to Earth again?

FAMILY PRAYER:

Help us, Lord, to make loving choices every day as we wait for your return.

QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF NEXT WEEK:

IN PREPARATION FOR MASS:

- ◆ How do you show your family that you are thankful? How about your friends? Do you remember to thank God, too?
- ◆ What ways do you show that you belong to Jesus' Kingdom?

OUR SUNDAY EVENING HIGH SCHOOL GATHERINGS are happening each Sunday evening from 6:00pm-8:30pm.

Everyone in 9th—12th grade is welcome to join us at any time. Play some games, catch up with some friends from the past, meet new friends. No commitments, no charge, no pressure, just come relax and take part in discussions that are geared to you by your peers.

Enter through Door #4 in the Circle Drive—we'll see you there.

If you have been paying attention to the readings over the past couple of weeks, a sort of theme has been developing. The first readings (at least to my untrained ears) lend themselves to God setting out rules for us to follow, with His promise to His followers of His faithfulness, so long as we follow the rules; but they also warn of the consequences to those who choose to follow their own rules and put those of God second.

The second readings have contrasted the priesthood of Jesus and the priesthood of man. They have spoken of sacrifice (in general) and of THE Sacrifice given for each of us, by Jesus, the Son of God. These contrasts tell us of the personal nature of Jesus' sacrifice versus the way the priests of the era offered the sacrifices called for by law, but not too much more when it relates to personal sacrificing. We heard of the perfection of Christ's priesthood and how His was a sacrifice once and for always for us. This sacrifice is remembered each and every time we attend Mass. Our pastors stand in the person of Christ as they offer our Eucharistic Sacrifice, and call the Holy Spirit into our shared meal. This is not a new sacrifice by us, rather an eternally occurring sacrifice that Jesus made for me, for you, for all of us. All we are required to do is accept this gift, and live our lives as if we were worthy to be saved (even though we could never earn this gift).

Finally our Gospel readings have Jesus bringing people to a greater understanding of His mission on Earth, from Bartimaeus (the blind man) and the scribes who tried to trick Jesus with the question about the greatest Commandment, to last week's gift of the widow's gift vs the gifts of the rich and this week's telling of what to look for, when, "they will see 'the Son of Man coming in the clouds' with great power and glory." (Mark 13:26).

For those that watch (and have an understanding of) the Liturgical Calendar, we are approaching the Solemnity of Christ the King of the Universe, the end of our Liturgical year. We began the year with Advent, the "coming wind" of Jesus, the Christ, into the world. The anticipation of God in the flesh (Incarnation), building to the birth of Jesus (Christmas), His naming—Immanuel (God with us), to His ministry on Earth and ultimately His sacrifice for us. At this point we entered a long stretch of "ordinary time" in the Liturgical year, which culminates with next week's solemnity. This is Jesus's promise to us that this Earthly life is not the "be all-end all". There is more to our existence than just our few years on this rock, hurtling through space and our notion of time. He has promised to return, to bring us back to the Father, and to usher us back to God's perfection, outside of time as we know it.

Praise God for His gifts to us this season, and this week at your Thanksgiving meal. Thank God for His mercy and for His "want" to bring us back into the fold of His complete Grace. May God Bless you, your families and friends this Thanksgiving, but let's not forget to thank Him for all of the blessings that He has given to us, and say a special prayer for those who are entering this holiday season for the first time, after losing someone special over the past year!

CHILDREN'S LITURGY OF THE WORD...

Thursday's K-6TH GRADE FAITH FORMATION is OFF for Thanksgiving.

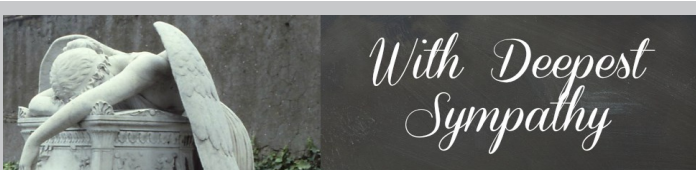

THANK YOU, HOSPITALITY COMMITTEE!

By definition, "Hospitality" is the act of being friendly and welcoming to guests and visitors. At St. Jane Frances, we have a group of volunteers that embody this definition through our Hospitality Committee.

These individuals strengthen fellowship in our parish community by hosting receptions and gatherings. From decorating the hall, making/serving refreshments, and cleaning up following the events, the Hospitality volunteers work to make sure the guests and visitors are made to feel welcome and special.

We would like to say THANK YOU to everyone who serves on the Hospitality Committee. Your time, talents and treasures are what help to make St. Jane Frances such a friendly and welcoming parish.
