As we see the close of October, we begin the month of November—a month in which the Universal Church remembers those who have died.

At St. Jane Frances de Chantal, as well as in every parish, we will remember those from our parish who were buried this past year. We will recall the many ways in which those who have died have influenced and touched our lives.

On one of my trips to Argentina, we arrived in time to celebrate the Day of the Dead, commonly known to us as All Souls' Day. The Day of the Dead is a holiday in South America and in most of Europe. It is a day to celebrate the lives of those who have gone before us. The celebration takes place at the graves of loved ones who have passed on. There is usually a picnic lunch with music, dancing, and food for all to enjoy. It is a joyful celebration of life and of memories. It is a celebration of faith.

It is important to remember and to pray for those who have died. An older priest once told me years ago that it's important to pray for those who have been called home by the Lord, because someday, others will be praying for you. Death is indeed a part of life, and I believe what surprises us about death is that we don't know when it will come. Pope Francis said that "We pray that God prepares us for the encounter. We know not the date, but the encounter will happen."

As we celebrate the Feast of All Souls, let us reflect upon the many people in our lives who have walked this journey with us—those who have left their imprint on our life and on our life's vocation. We are where we are and do what we are doing because of someone's influence on our life. We do not journey through life alone. Many people join us in our joys and challenges. Some are with us for a lifetime, while others may be with us for a short part of the journey—yet everyone we come into contact with leaves their mark on us.

The Church reminds us of the importance of prayer. The Catechism of the Catholic Church states that we are encouraged to pray, as "in the prayer of petition, every event and need can become an offering of thanksgiving. The letter of St. Paul often begins and ends with thanksgiving, and the Lord Jesus is always present in it: 'Give thanks in all circumstances; for this is the will of God in Jesus Christ'; 'Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving'" (CCC 2638).

O Lord, eternal rest grant unto our brothers and sisters. May the Light of your face be upon them.

Bon mot: "Remembrance is the only paradise out of which we cannot be driven away."

—Jean Paul Richter

Have a great day.

Carpe Diem,

Fr. Tony

THE MONTH OF NOVEMBER: A TIME OF REMEMBRANCE

In the Church calendar, the month of November begins with All Saints' Day, a time to remember all saints, known and unknown, who have gone before us in faith. November 2nd is All Souls' Day, when we remember all those who have entered into eternal life. It is also a day when we are reminded of the importance of caring for the bereaved.

We will remember all those from our parish community who have died in the last year at our Commemoration of All the Faithful Departed (All Souls' Day) Mass. It will take place at our regular Tuesday Mass on November 2nd at 7:00pm. All parishioners are invited to join us for this special Mass. At this liturgy, we will remember all those whose crosses have been displayed on our remembrance wall throughout the year, and we will distribute those crosses to the families of the deceased.

We encourage all parishioners to share in this month of remembrance by signing the names of their loved ones in the Remembrance Book in the Gathering Space. We remember all those listed in the Remembrance Book in our prayers throughout the month of November.

As we remember our loved ones, may this month of remembrance remind us of our need to care for each other as we grieve and of our need to support one another in spirit. Here at St. Jane Frances de Chantal, we have an amazing funeral ministry team. This team, led by Sharron Randazzo, serves as sacristans, altar servers, lectors, greeters, ushers, extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion, and essentially as caretakers of those family members who participate in a funeral Mass for their loved ones. Thank you to:

- Sharron Randazzo, Bill Bishop, Judy Koelzer, Selma Marzec, Dan & Darlene Rys, Bob Skwara, and Mary Wolf.
- Bob Skwara, who also leads the vigil prayer services/Rosary at the funeral home the evening before a funeral.
- Joe Nida, who makes the crosses for each family member to place on our wall of remembrance, and Jan Machusak, who prayerfully records the name of the deceased on the crosses.

Our community is grateful to all those who serve to comfort the grieving. If you feel called to join the funeral ministry team, please contact me for more information. We are always happy to welcome and train new ministers.

REMEMBRANCE CANDLES

We have a small supply of Remembrance Candles available for All Souls' Day in the Parish Office for a donation of $5.00. These beautiful candles are for home use and can be personalized with a permanent marker or label maker and lit in remembrance of your loved ones.

ALL SAINTS' DAY & ALL SOULS' DAY: THE WAY OF FAITH

This November, we celebrate All Saints' Day & All Souls' Day, recognizing the saints of the Catholic Church and remembering all those who have gone before us in faith.

Join us for a new episode of The Way of Faith as we learn about the history of All Saints' Day & All Souls' Day and remember those in our parish who have died in the last year. Visit sjfparish.org/thewayoffaith to watch now!

2021 ST. VINCENT DE PAUL HOLIDAY FOOD BASKET COLLECTION

“Lord, when did we see you hungry?”

Holidays are a time to give thanks to God for the blessings we have received—and to share those blessings with families in need.

For both Thanksgiving and Christmas, our St. Vincent de Paul chapter provides holiday meal packages to families in need within our parish boundaries. This only happens because of the generosity of you, the parishioners.

Due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, we will not be able to run a typical holiday food collection this year. Instead, we are asking for gift cards that we will distribute to families so they can purchase items for their holiday meal.

We are in need of gift cards in the amount of:

$10, $20, or $30

for Meijer, Kroger, or a prepaid Visa Card/Mastercard

Please place the gift cards in an envelope and write “St. Vincent de Paul holiday food” on the envelope. Gift card envelopes should be returned to the Parish Office no later than Wednesday, November 17, 2021.

Thank you for your generosity toward families that need our support!

If you have any questions, please call the Parish Office at 586-977-8080 or visit sjfparish.org/stvincentdepaul.

SIX WEEKS WITH THE BIBLE

Are you interested in learning more about the Bible in a casual, sharing atmosphere? We are hoping to start a new group to explore God’s word and reflect on how we might respond to it. This group would utilize a learning system called Six Weeks with the Bible by Loyola Press. Each six-week series will utilize a book that participants will purchase (for approximately $10) that explores either a book of the Bible or a particular theme. We would begin with the Book of Genesis but would not be exploring the books of the Bible in order. The guide includes Scripture passages, insights from Church fathers and saints, questions for discussion and reflection, and prayer suggestions.

It doesn’t matter if you have never studied the Bible before, or if you have had experience with Bible study—all are welcome! We are considering Tuesdays or Thursdays in the morning or evening as options, but we want to first gauge interest. Please email Laurie at LHall@sjfparish.org or call at 586-977-8080 to let us know that you are interested. Please include your preference for daytime or evening gatherings. We look forward to an opportunity to share Scripture with others and grow in understanding of God’s word while sharing our different viewpoints!

Adapted from Jump Start by Michael Amodei.

Until recently, Catholic schools were always closed on holy days of obligation. At Halloween time, this was a great advantage the Catholic school kids had over the public school kids. Because November 1st, the Feast of All Saints, was a day off of school, Catholic school students always got to stay out late trick-or-treating on Halloween.

Halloween, All Saints' Day, and All Souls' Day (on November 2nd) are often linked together, though their connections are not as strong as you might imagine.

The name Halloween means "All Hallows (Holy) Eve." Really, the name is a misnomer. Years before Christianity, the Druids marked the start of winter with the burning of the stalks around November 1st. It was believed that demons and devils roamed the earth on this night, and the way to ward them off included offering them sweets or disguising oneself in a costume and roaming with these evil spirits. Parts of these traditions have lasted until today.

All Saints' Day, on the other hand, is a feast established by the church to honor all of the saints in heaven who do not have a special day on one of the other 364 days of the year. These include the many saints who have not been recognized with canonization. Some of your deceased relatives and friends are likely included in those remembered on All Saints' Day.

You might think that the church established this holiday on November 1st as a way to counteract the pagan practices on Halloween. Actually, All Saints' Day was originally held in May. In 844 it was transferred to November 1st so that the many pilgrims who came to Rome to celebrate the day could be fed more easily with the food from the harvest.

All Souls' Day on November 2nd was established in the 11th century. The church has always believed that it should pray for "the souls of the faithfully departed." The tradition around All Souls' Day includes the Catholic belief in purgatory, a condition in which those who have died are "purged" or made clean from their sins in preparation for meeting God in the full joy of heaven. People on earth can aid the souls in purgatory by praying for them, doing works of charity, and offering Masses for the dead. Around the 1500s, priests were permitted to offer three Masses on All Souls' Day for the dead. Today, in your church bulletin, you will see people named, both living and dead, who will have Masses offered for them on a particular day and time.

A tradition in many countries is for family members to visit and decorate the graves of their deceased family members on All Souls' Day. Also, names of the dead are collected and given to the priest who offers special prayers for them during the month of November.

Today, if you go to a Catholic school, All Saints' Day is probably not a day off. Nevertheless, you may have the chance to celebrate Mass that day with all of your classmates.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What do you imagine will happen after you die?
2. Who is someone who has died with whom you feel a special connection? Explain the connection.
3. If there were a blueprint on becoming a saint, what would it include?
