As we gather with family and friends to celebrate Independence Day, may we reflect upon the history of our country. May we remember those who fought for the freedoms that we enjoy. Let us lift up in prayer those who gave their lives in battle to protect those freedoms.

May we share with our children our own family history, in particular those relatives and forbearers who came before us to forge a life for their families and for the next generation. Our lives and our histories are influenced by those who came before us, just as we influence the lives of those in the next generation. Our history is passed down from one generation to another.

May this Independence Day be a day of celebration—a day to gather in the company of family and friends, and a day to remember just how blessed we are. May we lift up in prayer all those who have served and continue to serve in the five branches of the military, fighting for the freedoms that we enjoy. Thank you from a grateful nation.

Independence Day Prayer

Adapted from The Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers

God, source of all freedom,
this day is bright with the memory of those who declared that life and liberty are your gifts to every human being.
Help us to continue the good work begun so long ago.
Make our vision clear and our will strong:
that only in human solidarity will we find liberty,
and justice only in the honor that belongs to every life on earth.
Turn our hearts to the family of nations:
to understand the ways of others, to offer friendship,
and to find safety only in the common good for all.
We ask this in your name. Amen.

Bon mot: “Life is not so short but there is always time for courtesy.”

—Ralph Waldo Emerson

Fr. Tony

As I have written before, RCIA can be joined at any time, so now is the time to begin praying in earnest for the Holy Spirit to send us seekers. I am asking for the prayers of the entire community to ask God to send us seekers—people looking to form a relationship with Jesus through the Sacraments of the Catholic Church. We can begin the process at any time to prepare people for reception of the Sacraments at the Easter Vigil in 2022.

Once we have seekers, we will need sponsors and those who are willing to share their faith with a small group. I ask you to please include prayers for a Spirit-filled group of people to come forward to form the RCIA team, and most importantly, for our evangelization efforts to be increased so that we bring in those seeking initiation.

Struggling with how to pray for seekers? If you need a little inspiration, here are some thoughts:

Pray that God will send his Holy Spirit to those who recognize they are missing something, but don't yet recognize what it is they are missing. "I will give you a new heart, and a new spirit I will put within you. I will remove the heart of stone from your flesh and give you a heart of flesh. I will put my spirit within you so that you walk in my statutes, observe my ordinances, and keep them. You will live in the land I gave to your ancestors; you will be my people, and I will be your God" (Ezek. 36:26-28).

Pray for more people to come to Christ. There is only one way to salvation: through Christ and Christ alone. "Jesus said to him, 'I am the way, and the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me'" (Jn. 14:6). Remember, too, that Christ is the one who calls us (Mt. 11:28-30).

Pray that God would open people's hearts to believe the Gospel. God is always calling us—always seeking to bring us to Himself. We must respond. So pray that God would open the hearts of these unbelievers so they can in turn believe, just as Lydia did. "The Lord opened her heart to pay attention to what Paul was saying" (Acts 16:14).

Pray to the Saints. Here is a prayer adapted from The Catholic Household Blessings and Prayers:

O God, you made your name known to us through the Apostles.
By the intercession of St. Jude, let your Church continue to grow with an increased number of believers.
Grant this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Finally, pray like the Saints. The following is the prayer of St. Dominic, a beautiful prayer to remind us of our responsibility to live in the Lord, bringing people to God by our example and the Word:

May God the Father, who made us, bless us.
May God the Son send His healing among us.
May God the Holy Spirit move within us and give us eyes to see with, ears to hear with,
and hands that Your work might be done.
May we walk and preach the Word of God to all.
May the angel of peace watch over us and lead us at last by God's Grace to the Kingdom.

THE PRESENTATION OF THE GIFTS

We are ready to return to a beautiful part of the liturgy: the Presentation of the Gifts. I know that many of us have missed the opportunity to participate in the Mass, so this is a joyous occasion! Just as a refresher, here is some information about the Presentation of the Gifts, which is part of the Preparation of the Gifts.

The Mass has two main parts—the Liturgy of the Word, where we encounter God’s Word spoken to each of us through the readings from Scripture, and the Liturgy of the Eucharist, where, nourished by God’s word, we prepare to be fed by Jesus’ body and blood. The Liturgy of the Eucharist consists of three principal parts, the first of which is the Preparation of the Gifts. In this part, the priest and the people prepare for the Eucharistic Prayer, which makes Jesus’ body and blood and His redeeming sacrifice present.

The first step in this preparation is the Presentation of the Gifts. This is an action in which we, the people, participate. Although we no longer bring the bread from the wheat grown in our fields or the wine from the grapes in our vineyards, the gifts we bring forward signify the giving of ourselves to God. In the Presentation of the Gifts, it is as if we bring our entire lives and all our little sacrifices to the hands of Jesus himself. It may not look like much, but the action is rich and full of the love we have for God and our thanksgiving for the sacrifice of Jesus.

How do you participate? We are asking you to sign up ahead of time to present the gifts at Mass. The sign-up book has been returned to the Welcome Desk in the Gathering Space. The book contains one page for each weekend of the next year. It is our hope that you will sign up to present the gifts in thanksgiving to God. Consider signing up for an anniversary of marriage, in remembrance of the anniversary of the death of a loved one, a birthday, in celebration of special moments in the life of your family, or for any Mass for any reason.

We ask that you arrive ten minutes before the Mass you signed up for to check in with an Usher, so they know that you are present. If a particular Mass does not have anyone signed up, the Ushers will ask people as they come into Mass. However, it is our great hope that we will see an increase in the variety of people who participate in this beautiful action of the liturgy. The Mass is the center of our faith, and our participation is a wonderful sign of our love for God.

Please feel free to start signing up this weekend!
