FIFTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

JULY 12, 2020

FR. TONY SULKOWSKI
Pastor
FrTony@sjfparish.org
Ext. 102

On behalf of the community and staff of St. Jane Frances de Chantal, I would like to thank Debbie Mazur for her years of service to our parish. She will retire as of July 12, 2020. In her years of service as Christian Service Coordinator and Adult Formation Coordinator, she has shared her gifts and talents to keep life issues at the forefront of our mind, and to minister to the people of God.

We wish her well as she enters retirement and all her future endeavors. Thank you, Debbie, for all that you did to make St. Jane Frances de Chantal the parish that it is. All the best to you, and may God bless you.

Many people have asked about the Catholic Services Appeal. Due to COVID-19, the Appeal did not take place at the usual time. However, the Catholic Services Appeal will take place in mid-September. The process will be different this year: the Archdiocese of Detroit will handle the Appeal through direct mailings.

Throughout the month of August, everyone who has given to the CSA in the past will receive a letter directly from the Archdiocese of Detroit asking you to consider making a pledge to the Appeal. The Archdiocese will handle all the recording and bookkeeping for the Appeal.

You will hear more about this new process as we draw closer to the CSA kickoff. I ask that you be as generous as you possibly can be. The people of St. Jane Frances de Chantal have always been generous to the Appeal in the past. As I have mentioned in years past, we all benefit from the work of the Catholic Services Appeal, whether we are aware of it or not. You will hear more about the Appeal in the coming weeks.

During this time of COVID-19, I would like to thank everyone for their continued financial support of the parish. It enables us to continue the various ministries we offer to the people of St. Jane Frances de Chantal and the community of Sterling Heights. It also enables us to remain current on our bills. Thank you for your generosity and support. Have a great week and enjoy this summer weather.

Bon mot: "When a friend asks, there is no tomorrow." —George Herbert

Carpe Diem,
Fr. Tony

2021 MASS INTENTIONS

Mass intentions for 2021 are now available.

You may call the Parish Office to schedule your intention(s) and mail your monetary offering in, or stop by the Parish Office.

EMAIL SCAM ALERT

Please be advised that fraudulent emails are currently circulating. These emails may appear to be from Archbishop Vigneron, Fr. Tony, or another member of the clergy. These emails contain requests for money—usually, under the pretense of requesting a "quick and discreet favor."

St. Jane Frances de Chantal and the Archdiocese of Detroit will never contact you personally to request money or gift cards. If you have received an email that you doubt the legitimacy of, contact our parish directly at 586-977-8080.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

"Nourished by God's Word & the Eucharist, St. Jane Frances de Chantal Parish is a welcoming Catholic community dedicated to living and proclaiming the Gospel of Jesus Christ."

A YEAR ACCEPTABLE TO THE LORD: 48 PRIESTS CELEBRATE 2,395 COMBINED YEARS OF SERVICE

By Michael Stechschulte, courtesy of detroitcatholic.org.

Normally, the month of June is a celebration for priests celebrating milestone jubilees of their ordination in the Archdiocese of Detroit.

This year was no different.

What is different is that this year's 48 jubilarians weren't able to gather for a traditional Mass and in-person celebration—at least not yet—because of the ongoing pandemic.

In a letter written to this year's jubilarians, Archbishop Allen H. Vigneron said these priests "have used the gifts with which the Lord Jesus endowed them for decades, and I am confident that God will reward them for their service."

The Archbishop said the annual celebratory Mass "is one of the more important times we gather as a presbyterate," and said he looks forward to gathering "sometime in the future, when this disturbing time is behind us."

"Our brothers are making a great sacrifice, since they cannot celebrate with a parish community and with their family and friends," the Archbishop said.

For their many decades of selfless sacrifice and counsel, for their celebration of countless sacraments on behalf of the faithful, and for their friendship to the people of God in the Archdiocese of Detroit, Detroit Catholic honors this year's priest jubilarians and thanks them for answering God's call.

St. Jane Frances de Chantal recognizes those priests celebrating this month, and gives special thanks to our pastor, Fr. Tony, who celebrates his birthday this Saturday. We thank all the priests in the Archdiocese, and indeed worldwide, for all that they do for the Church.

To be sent more articles like this one, sign up for Parish News at sjfparish.org.

LIVE MASS AT HOME
 Live Mass available every Sunday at 9:00am at aod.org/LiveMasses.

HAPPY RETIREMENT, DEBBIE!

We will miss you and the contributions of your presence and ministry. On behalf of St. Jane Frances de Chantal, we wish you the best on your future endeavors and on the path that you will follow. God bless you!

BEN KLASSEN

Director of Faith Formation

Ext. 108

As I read this weekend's readings, I am still in awe (even after all these years) at how spot on God's word is for each and every one of us! We live in an advanced, civilized society, yet it seems the more advanced and civilized we become, the poorer our memories and manners become!

Jesus speaks in the Gospel of the seeds growing in shallow dirt, among thorns, and being overtaken by the elements. But the seeds growing in fertile ground grew deep roots and survived harsh conditions.

The long version of the Gospel reading speaks of why Jesus speaks in stories (parables) to the people that come to Him, who are, more often than not, the simpler people of the towns and villages. These people did not have the knowledge of Scriptures the way modern scholars did.

To paraphrase, He tells His disciples that to those with the knowledge of God's kingdom, more will be given—but to those who are without that knowledge, what they have will be taken away.

Now take the first reading this weekend, which speaks of the elements (in particular, water): the prophet Isaiah compares water (a life giving and affirming element) to the word that he speaks. These things (water and words) stay among us, watering and nourishing life within us. If we hear God's Word, and strive to understand and use it in our lives, we will overflow with the peace that it brings us.

Our job is a simple one—strive to know more than we currently do about God's Love and the gift of His Son, Jesus. Then we will realize, just as the Apostle Paul wrote to the Romans (chapter 8, verse 18),

"... the sufferings of this present time are as nothing compared with the glory to be revealed for us."

We are called to have strength in our patience so that we may be witness to the amazing Glory that God has waiting for us. I look forward to growing with everyone through these times as we await God's Promise!

MIDDLE SCHOOL AND HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS:

Join us on Wednesday evenings from 6:00pm—8:00pm in the circle drive here at the parish! We offer socially-distanced games and activities, as well as single-serve refreshments.

If you have questions about this event, feel free to visit sjfparish.org/youthministry or email Youth@sjfparish.org.

Communications Facilitator
LJeffrey@sjfparish.org
Ext. 101

Communication has never been more important than it is right now. We're pressed to stay informed about new developments with the COVID-19 pandemic. That may keep us glued to our television screens, our digital devices, and various news sources in order to know how to stay safe, how to keep others safe, and what is or isn't reopening.

This can be difficult. We know we need to keep informed, but too much information can simply be overwhelming. In times of stress, it can be helpful to look to God for guidance. Below is a prayer adapted from xavier.edu that can remind us to slow down, take a moment, and be calm.

*Lord, please put Your peace in my heart.
I'm worried and anxious.
My mind races and obsesses.
I can't help thinking about my problems.
I feel like I'm sinking down in quicksand and can't get out.
Calm me, Lord.
Slow me down; put Your peace in my heart.
No matter what problem I have, Lord,
You are bigger;
You are more powerful than it is.
So I bring my problem to You.
Please fill my heart with peace.*

St. Jane Frances de Chantal is working hard to keep you informed of the latest developments at our parish. Whatever the news, be it parish-wide or Archdiocese-wide, we will make sure you are up-to-date.

The following are a variety ways to keep in touch with us:

Our parish bulletin. The bulletin is an important point of contact with our parishioners; with it, we have the capability to put our news in your hands, physically or digitally. The bulletin is available to pick up at all Masses and at the Parish Office. It's also viewable digitally at sjfparish.org/bulletin.

Parish News is the best source for immediate updates from our parish. With it, we deliver email announcements and updates the moment they become available. We also offer email reflections, prayers, and weekly updates. To sign up, visit sjfparish.org, scroll down to Quick Links, and click Sign up for Parish News. Parish News will deliver to any valid email address.

Social media. St. Jane Frances de Chantal has an active, avid social media presence. These are the best channels to engage with us in an informal way; we post Scripture, reflections, and parish opportunities that can be liked and shared with your friends! We're on Facebook and Twitter at @sjfparish, and on Instagram at [@stjane francesparish](https://www.instagram.com/stjane francesparish).

Our website, sjfparish.org, is the capstone of all our communication channels. On our website, we have all editions of the bulletin available digitally. We also have easy links to sign up for Parish News, contact information for our staff, and links to our parish social media. Best of all, sjfparish.org can be accessed on any Internet-capable device!

We hope this variety of options helps you stay informed stress-free. If you have questions, I am available anytime at LJeffrey@sjfparish.org.
