Happy New Year

I would like to wish all of you a Happy New Year.

I hope that your Christmas was a joyous and enjoyable one with family and friends. Today, the Church celebrates the Feast of the Holy Family. Family can be defined in many ways, a mother and father and children are a family, people who are descendents from a common ancestor are referred to as family. Family can also be defined as any group of people who have one or more things in common.

Personally, as I think of the word family many examples come to mind. First and foremost there is my biological family, my brother priests are a family, there is the parish family of St. Jane Frances de Chantal, my dinner group and the list goes on. As we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family may we give thanks to God for our own families. But may we also remember those groups of people we interact with who are also families to us.

The New Year is upon us and we are filled with hopes and expectations. May we take the time to see God's hand working in our daily life and in the lives of the people we come in contact with throughout our journey of faith. At this time of the year, as we close out one year and begin anew, I find myself reflecting upon two aspects of my life. The first is recalling the many people and experiences that I had in the past year. The countless ways God has revealed Himself to me through so many people.

The second is, as I begin this new year, the question that often comes to my mind is: How is God going to use me to proclaim His message and more importantly, will I be open to responding to God's call?

I have said many times that God has a plan for each one of us, we don't need to understand or know what that plan is. We just have to go along for the ride because God has us in the palm of His Hand. God is good; all the time God is good.

In our prayers may we remember the men and women who are serving in the military, who protect and defend the freedoms that we enjoy. On behalf of a grateful nation, we thank all of the men and women who serve in the five branches of the military for their service to our country.

Bon mot: Many people do not have a clear idea about what is important to them.

-Anthony Robbins

Have a great New Year.

Carpe Diem,

Fr. Tony

The traditional day to celebrate Epiphany is January 6th. This year we celebrate on January 8th, as it falls on a Sunday. Falling twelve days after Christmas, this was regarded as enough time for the Magi to travel to Bethlehem from foreign lands to pay homage to the newborn King. With their arrival, Jesus is now made known to the outside world. Just as the star in the East symbolized the light of Christ shining for the whole world to see, we are called to show Christ in our lives so others can realize the Good News wherever we go.

We might ask ourselves today: To whom do I pay homage? Are they worthy of my respect?

EPIPHANY BLESSING

“Chalking the door” is a way to celebrate and literally mark the occasion of the Epiphany and God’s blessing of our lives and homes. With time, the chalk will fade. As it does, we let the meaning of the written symbols sink into the depths of our hearts and be manifest in our words and actions.

A traditional way of writing this blessing is to use chalk to write above the home’s entrance: “20 + C + M + B + 23.” The letters C, M, and B have two meanings. First, they are the initials of the traditional names of the three Magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar. They also abbreviate the Latin words Christus Mansionem Benedicat, or “May Christ bless this house.” The “+” signs represent the cross, and 2023 is the year.

To begin, first bless the chalk:

Leader: “Our help is in the name of the Lord.”

All reply: “The maker of heaven and earth.”

Leader: “The Lord shall watch over your going out and your coming in.”

All reply: “From this time forth for evermore. Let us pray.”

Together: “Loving God, bless this chalk which you have created, that it may be helpful to your people. Grant that through the invocation of your most Holy Name, we who use it in faith to write upon the door of our home the names of your holy ones Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar may receive health of body and protection of soul for all who dwell in or visit our home. We ask this through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.”

To bless the home:

Using the blessed chalk, mark the lintel of your front door (or front porch step) with “20 + C + M + B + 23.” While doing so, say:

“The Three Wise Men, Caspar, Melchior, and Balthazar followed the star of God’s Son, who became human two thousand and twenty-three years ago. May Christ bless our home and remain with us throughout the new year. Amen.”

Then offer the following prayer:

“Visit, O blessed Lord, this home with the gladness of your presence. Bless all who live or visit here with the gift of your love, and grant that we may manifest your love to each other and to all whose lives we touch.

“May we grow in grace and in our knowledge and love of you. Guide, comfort, and strengthen us in peace, O Jesus Christ, now and forever. Amen.”
