Options

As of late, we have seen many envelopes in the bulletin for what is commonly known as a second collection. As you are aware, we do not take a second collection at St. Jane Francis de Chantal. We do provide the envelope, and we let you decide if you wish to give to this organization or not.

What you may not know, is that some of the “second collections” are worldwide or taken up throughout the United States and the world. Let me say from the onset, that these are all worthwhile causes, however it can seem to be a bit overwhelming at times. As the pastor of St. Jane Frances de Chantal, I do not have the option to pick and choose what envelope is put in the bulletin. The Archdiocese of Detroit makes the decision.

I can only give you the option as to which “second collection envelope” you wish to respond to if you wish to respond at all. On a personal note, I make my contributions to St. Jane Frances de Chantal Parish. Whether that be through the Catholic Services Appeal, the Christmas collection, the Priest’s Pension Plan, or the weekly collection it is earmarked to the parish. That is the option that I choose. In supporting the parish, we support the good work that the parish does within the parish and community of Sterling Heights.

I wish to thank you for your generosity to the parish. It is through your weekly support that we, as members of St. Jane Francis de Chantal, have a parish that is well maintained with a wonderful staff who are good stewards of the resources that we have.

As you know we celebrate the Sacrament of Anointing on the last Tuesday of each month after 7:00pm Mass. However, if you have a scheduled surgery or a procedure and would like to be anointed, you can see me before or after the daily or weekend Masses and I would be more than happy to celebrate the Sacrament of Anointing with you. The sacrament can be, and is a comfort, for those who are ill or undergoing surgery as well as their caregivers.

The sick who receive this sacrament, “by freely uniting themselves to the passion and death of Christ, contribute to the good of the People of God. By celebrating this sacrament the Church, in the communion of saints, intercedes for the benefit of the sick person, and he, for his part, through the grace of the sacrament, contributes to the sanctification of the Church and the good of all people for whom the Church suffers and offers herself through Christ to God the Father.”
Catechism of the Catholic Church

Have a great week and a great St. Patrick’s day celebration.

Bon mot: Every believer is God’s miracle.

Last week, I wrote about the beginning of the Triduum (three days), with the Mass of the Lord's Supper. The Mass of the Lord's Supper concludes with Adoration at the Altar of Repose in our Chapel. The Triduum continues on Good Friday with the liturgy of the Passion of the Lord. At the Good Friday liturgy, the Mass continues, with three key parts:

1. Liturgy of the Word, where we hear the story of the passion from John's Gospel and pray for the Church and the world. The liturgy begins with the presider reverencing the altar and then moves immediately into the Old (Isaiah 52:13-53:12) and New Testament readings (Hebrews 4:14-16; 5:7-9) and the Gospel (the Passion narrative according to John). The Gospel is read in the same way as it was on Palm Sunday, always from the Gospel of John rather than from one of the synoptic gospels (this year our Palm Sunday reading is from the Gospel of Mark). What follows is a brief homily and then the Solemn Intercessions, a series of petitions that are universally prayed throughout the world, for the needs of many, including the Holy Church, the Pope, catechumens, the Jewish people, and several other needs.
2. Adoration of the Holy Cross follows the Liturgy of the Word. Here we approach the cross with a sign of reverence for this symbol of our salvation, this sign of God's love for us. We reverence the cross because we adore Christ, and we thank him for his perfect sacrifice on the cross. At St. Jane Frances, we conclude the Good Friday liturgy with the assembly participating in reverencing the cross.
3. The third part of the Good Friday liturgy is Holy Communion, different as the Liturgy of the Eucharist is not celebrated on this day. Holy Communion is distributed from the reserved Blessed Sacrament consecrated on Holy Thursday.

The liturgy ends without fanfare. All are invited to reverence the cross and spend some time in prayer, reflecting on the great sacrifice of Christ for the salvation of all.

Good Friday is a day of fast and abstinence. We are encouraged to pray, reflecting on Jesus' death and pondering what it means for us.

On both Palm Sunday and Good Friday, we participate in the proclamation of the passion narratives. The United States Conference of Catholic Bishops' Committees on Divine Worship and Ecumenical and Interreligious Affairs wishes to ensure that the proclamation of the Lord's Passion is not misused to promote anti-Jewish sentiment. The following is a statement from the above-named committees:

- The passion narratives are proclaimed in full so that all see vividly the love of Christ for each person. In light of this, the crimes during the Passion of Christ cannot be attributed, in either preaching or catechesis, indiscriminately to all Jews of that time, nor to Jews today. The Jewish people should not be referred to as though rejected or cursed, as if this view followed from Scripture. The Church ever keeps in mind that Jesus, his mother Mary, and the apostles all were Jewish. As the Church has always held, Christ freely suffered his passion and death because of the sins of all, that all might be saved.

About the Congresses

Who are the congresses for?

- This event is for all people who want to learn more about Jesus or the Eucharist. Whether you have known Jesus your whole life or haven't met him yet, you are welcome to come. We recommend you RSVP for the event to help us in our planning.

Why attend a regional congress?

- Who is Jesus? Who am I to Jesus? What does this mean for my life? If you've ever asked yourself these questions or want to know more, join us.

What is the larger context for these congresses?

- As the Archdiocese of Detroit joins the celebration of the National Eucharistic Revival, join us this day for an inspiring speaker (English or Spanish), dynamic music, prayer, and more.

GOSPEL: John 12:20-33 - "Where I am. there also is my servant"

REFLECTION

Jesus came down to earth to show us how to live. He was a teacher, a miracle worker, a healer, and a servant to the outcasts. He expects us to serve others, too, as His followers. Jesus also came that we may have life. New life. A different life from the one we live here on earth. Jesus gave up his own life so that we may have eternal life in heaven. By following Jesus' example and believing in Him as our Lord and Savior, we receive a place in his heavenly kingdom., all because of His sacrifice on the cross, which we celebrate this Lent.

ACTIVITIES

- 1) Plant a seed in a cup or container. A seed has life, but it is different than the life it has as a flower, once it sprouts and grows. This is similar to our life on earth and new life in heaven.
- 2) Jesus attracted many followers. Use a magnet to go around the house and see what kind of items it magnetizes to. Test items in all rooms of your house and realize how Jesus is always trying to draw us to Him to be his followers.
