Easter Season

I hope and pray that everyone is staying well.
I remember all of you in my prayers and daily Mass.

May we be thankful that we were able to gather in Church to celebrate the Easter joy and come together as a faith community. That is what church is all about. Coming together to celebrate as a parish family and lifting each other up in prayer.

As we are in the midst of celebrating this Easter season, I would like to share with you a prayer that is attributed to Saint Oscar Arnulfo Romero, but pronounced for the first time by Cardinal John Dearden.

This prayer reminds us that God has a plan for each one of us and we are invited to participate in that plan. God is greater than we can ever imagine. As we bring to closure the Easter season let us be open to God's plan for us. It is not important that we understand His plan. What is important is that we surrender ourselves to His plan.

Every now and then it helps us to take a step back and to see from a distance. The Kingdom is not only beyond our efforts, it is also beyond our vision.

In our lives, we manage only to achieve a small part of the marvelous plan that is God's work. Nothing that we do is complete, which is to say that the Kingdom is greater than ourselves. No statement says everything that can be said. No prayer completely expresses the faith. No creed brings perfection. No pastoral visit solves every problem. No programs fully accomplish the mission of the Church. No goal or purpose ever reaches completion.

This is what it is about. We plant seeds that one day will grow. We water seeds already planted, knowing that others will watch over them. We lay the foundation of something that will develop. We add the yeast which will multiply the possibilities. We cannot do everything yet it is liberating to begin. This gives us strength to do something and do it well. It may remain incomplete, but it is a beginning, a step along the way. It is an opportunity for the grace of God to enter and to do the rest. It may be that we will never see its completion, but that is the difference between the master and the laborer.

"We are laborers, not master builders, servants, not the Messiah. We are prophets of a future that does not belong to us."

RCIA – Congratulations to our neophytes! At the Easter Vigil on Saturday, April 8th, we celebrated the sacraments of initiation for Deirdre Tracey, Nadia Raft, and Selah Fischer. It was a deeply moving experience to witness adults entering into the Catholic Church through the sacraments – praise the Lord!

Deirdre, Nadia, and Selah really enjoyed the cards of welcome and knowing that you were praying for them throughout their preparation. I add my gratitude to theirs.

Congratulations to our neophytes – we continue to pray for you as you move through the period of mystagogy and discern where God is leading you next!

Moving forward, I ask that you continue to pray for God to send us more seekers! We can begin learning and preparing for the Sacraments of Initiation at any time. If you know of anyone interested in learning more about the process of sacramental preparation, please direct them to me via email or phone. Thank you!

Alleluia!

A big thank you to all those who helped with the decorating for Easter on Good Friday! Many hands do make light work and the work of kind and generous people warms our hearts. Creating an environment of joy in the Risen Lord is a gift to all of us. May you be blessed as you have blessed this community!

Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good,
his love is everlasting

TIMOTHY AWARD WINNERS FOR “EXCELLENT CONTRIBUTIONS TO YOUTH MINISTRY”

Elizabeth Galadik

Hi. I'm Elizabeth. I'm 14 years old. I am a student at Sterling Heights High School and I'm also in WCSPA. I am very active in my church as an altar server and running the "Sacrament Buddy" program for faith formation. I am very dedicated to our youth ministry program and will be leading our Confirmation Retreat in April.

Jaise Bergmoser

Jaise is a Junior at Orchard Lake St. Mary's Preparatory High School. Teamwork, Humility, Empathy, and Optimism are characteristics he's learned as a student at OLSM, and he works to apply those traits with all he does. He's a dedicated member of the JWJ Catholic Academy and volunteer at Rainbow Connection.
