Mother's Day

I wish to extend to all the women in the parish a Happy Mother's day. Women at every stage of our life convey and share with us a maternal nature that is known to them.

I received a card with the following poem. I would like to dedicate and share this poem with all our mothers who gave us life and allowed us to grow into the people we are today.

A Litany to Mothers

In the rising of the sun and its going down, we remember them.

When we are weary and need strength, we remember them.

When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them.

When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them.

So long as we as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us, as we remember them.

In the blowing of the wind and the chill of the winter, we remember them.

In the opening of the buds and the rebirth of spring, we remember them.

In the blueness of sky and in the warmth of summer, we remember them.

In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them. In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them.

And may your memories and stories be a joy to you.

---- From the Rabbi's Manual, Copyright 1988, pp.130-131.

Whether our mothers are living or deceased, their down to earth advice seems to influence our lives no matter how old we are. My mother has been deceased now for five years yet her advice is the foundation of my life. A mother's advice is always simple in nature yet it invokes deeper reflection on our part.

My mother's advice was threefold, first and foremost always be a gentlemen be respectful to all people and all of creation. Be thankful to God for all that He has bestowed upon you. Lastly, work hard and love what you do, be passionate about what you do.

Bon mot: All that I am, or hope to be, I owe to my mother.

--- Abraham Lincoln

Have a great day-Carpe Diem,
Fr. Tony

Both today's first reading and the Gospel reading speak of the Holy Spirit, the Advocate or the Paraclete, depending on which translation you read. The Greek word for the Holy Spirit, translated here as Advocate, is a bit like the word "cool." We can say something is cool to the touch, indicating temperature, or that something is cool because it is new or interesting. We also say "cool" to indicate we are in agreement. "Paraclete" is simply the Greek word transferred into English. It has been translated into titles such as: Comforter, Teacher, Helper, Advisor, Consoler, Friend, Counselor, and Intercessor. In both classical and modern Greek, the word Paraclete also means a defense attorney.

When we look at all those titles for the Holy Spirit, each one conveys some nuance of the Spirit's relationship to us. The underlying thread is that it is someone who is on your side. Just as Jesus promised, "the Spirit of truth" is always on our side. When we speak of our relationship with Jesus, we speak of accompaniment, of a "walking together." Each day, as we go about our ordinary, mundane tasks or extraordinary, unusual tasks, the Holy Spirit is by our side. Are we aware of this great gift?

In any given day, do you realize and acknowledge the work of the Holy Spirit? The main reason we don't see the Spirit at work in our lives is likely that we don't expect to. We tend to put our spiritual life in a compartment separate from daily living. Sometimes the work of the Spirit is so obvious that it cannot be ignored. When events occur that are seemingly unrelated but lead to the exact right solution to a problem, that is the work of the Holy Spirit. When the world seems to come to a standstill due to a pandemic, wreaking havoc in our daily lives yet we seem to be managing the change and even prospering, that is the work of the Holy Spirit. Whenever we are in need of someone on our side to defend against the challenges of our secular world, the Holy Spirit is there, not leaving us like an orphan to handle things completely on our own.

An enlightening activity to do at the end of each day is to reflect on the day. Where did you feel the Spirit at work? Where might the Spirit have been working and you didn't notice? Where there any events that seemed like a "lucky coincidence"? Might that have been the work of the Spirit?

May we be more aware of, and grateful for, the great gift of the Holy Spirit. Call on the Spirit to guide you as you seek to live out the commandments and demonstrate love for God and for his children. Additionally, we know that we are not here just for ourselves, that we are the ones who must proclaim Jesus' commandments to a world desperately in need of mercy and love. The only way we can accomplish this monumental task is with the Spirit at our side.

*Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful.
And kindle in them the fire of your love.*

I am in
MY FATHER and
YOU ARE IN ME
and I AM IN YOU

John 14:20

This year's Catholic Services Appeal (CSA) theme comes from the words we hear at the end of Mass: "Go and Announce the Gospel of the Lord." It reminds us that in the Eucharist, we are not only rejuvenated and nourished but also sent out into our communities, inviting all to "come and see the goodness of the Lord."

When you make a gift to the CSA, you support the work of more than 170 ministries, services, and programs in the Archdiocese of Detroit that respond each day to the material and spiritual needs of countless individuals and their families. When we come together as the Church, nourished and strengthened by the Eucharist, our words and actions share the Good News of the Gospel with those around us.

Help us announce the Gospel of the Lord by making a gift today at givecsa.org
