As Time Goes By

One of my favorite television shows on the BBC is titled, As Time Goes By. It is a sitcom about everyday life and the relationship between the four main characters. At the conclusion of each episode, the characters reflect upon their day and have a great appreciation of all that they experienced that particular day and the people that crossed their path.

I would like to thank all those people who sent cards and gifts on the occasion of my 64th birthday. It was a wonderful day. I would also like to thank everyone who gave blood two weeks ago here at St. Jane Frances de Chantal. Of the organizations I support the one that is at the top of my list is giving blood.

As I mentioned three weeks ago at the weekend liturgies, giving blood is the easiest thing to do and one pint of blood can save four lives. I would encourage those who never give blood to consider doing so and I would also encourage those people who are regular blood donors to continue donating.

In the words of a good friend of Fr. Harry Hoffmaster, who long before I was ordained a priest said: "Always give blood when you have the opportunity because one day the life you save may be your own."

The summer will soon be coming to an end. As we enter the month of August let us relish these last days of summer. May we take the time to step away from our daily schedules and routines and savor the beauty of God's creation.

Robert Frost who has written many books of poetry wrote a poem titled A Passing Glimpse:

I often see flowers from a passing car
That are gone before I can tell what they are.

I want to get out of the train and go back
To see what they were beside the track.

I name all the flowers I am sure they weren't;
Not fireweed loving where woods have burnt.

Not bluebells gracing a tunnel mouth
Not lupine living on sand and drouth.

Was something brushed across my mind
That no one on earth will ever find?

Heaven gives its glimpses only to those
Not in position to look too close.

Bon mot: I remember when I walk, I kiss the earth with my feet.

–Thich Nhat Hanh

Please save the date for our Liturgical Ministers Gathering on Monday, September 26, 2022 from 6:30pm – 8:30pm!

This gathering is for all those who serve in

Liturgical Ministries-Altar Linen Launderers, Altar Servers (in 8th grade and up), Art and Environment Committee, Baptism Hospitality Ministers, Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion, Funeral Team Ministers, Lectors, Music Ministers, Sacristans, Team Faithful, Ushers, Worship Commission, anyone interested in serving in these ministries and anyone in the parish who wishes to join in!

The goal of this gathering is to provide a short retreat from the world as we either prepare for ministry or renew ourselves for continued ministry. The presentation and dialogue will build on our time together last year learning and growing in recognition of our baptismal call to holiness. At this evening we will get to know two saints: our beloved Saint Jane Frances de Chantal and her friend and spiritual advisor the great Saint Francis de Sales. In living out their call to holiness these two saints joined together to serve God and the people of God. From them we can learn much about holiness and spiritual friendship as we continue to deepen our relationship with God.

Our time together will include light refreshments, time to share experiences and avenues to growth, and will conclude with an opportunity to spend time in Adoration as we contemplate our own spirituality and spiritual friendships.

Please put the date and time on your calendars now. This is a great time to invite someone who doesn't currently serve in a liturgical ministry but has expressed interest or you think would be a good candidate. You can also invite someone who is interested in learning more about Saints Jane Frances and Francis de Sales. All are welcome!

Looking forward to spending time in formation and reflection with all of you!

Blessed Mother Statue arriving soon!

I'm happy to be able to provide an update on our efforts to acquire a statue of the Blessed Virgin Mary for our garden! The current production and shipping challenges have made it a bit longer process than usual, but the statue has been ordered and is forecasted to arrive at the end of September. This picture is the statue purchased; it is a life-sized statue of the Blessed Mother praying. We will place the statue in the courtyard when it is received.

We are very grateful to all who donated to this new addition and pray that this statue of our Blessed Mother will be a place of prayer and a source of peace and comfort for all.

Here at St. Jane Frances, we are all about helping out our brothers and sisters in Christ. And so, the Health Ministry would like to thank everyone who donated blood at our Red Cross Blood Drive on Sunday, July 17th. The numbers were down a little, but we still collected 29 pints. Life-saving blood can only be given by us and it is a selfless act of love when you do so.

God has given us all the gift of our human bodies and it is up to us to take proper care of it. Anyone who has ever suffered from a serious illness knows that good health is vital. Without it, we are compromised. The monthly Blood Pressure Screening conducted by our Parish Nurses, is one way to keep current on our own health assessments. I'm happy to report that the numbers for those screenings are increasing each month. This past week, over 25 people came in to be tested...so thank you St. Jane Frances parishioners and Parish Nurses! Just a reminder: BP screenings are conducted on the 4th weekend of the month. On Saturdays, the screenings are conducted from 4:45pm-5:15pm and on Sundays from 9:45am-12:30pm.

From Ascension Health and our Parish Nurses: here is one more way to effectively manage your blood pressure. The program is called Bless Your Heart and will enable participants to take control of their heart health through self-monitoring their blood pressure and engaging in educational lecture and activities. You will receive a FREE blood pressure monitor with monthly class attendance. Classes are from 6:30pm-8:00pm at the Macomb Oakland Hospital Warren Campus, 11800 E. 12 Mile Rd. Warren MI 48093 Conference Room G-103-C. The class topics are as follows:

- August 9, 2022 – What is High Blood Pressure?
- September 13, 2022 – The Skinny on Healthy Eating
- October 11, 2022 – Movin' and Groovin'
- November 8, 2022 – Healthy Habits of the Mind: Reducing Stress

Time is short so please sign up now. To pre-register, contact Sue Knapp, BSN, RN at 248.849.5717 and leave a message, or email her at suzette.knapp@ascension.org.

*NEW MENTAL HEALTH HOTLINE: With mental health help desperately needed for so many, the Mental Health and Suicidal Crisis HOT LINE is now available. Every year, millions of mental health or suicidal crisis calls are made to 911 and local crisis lines. Unfortunately, when in-person help is needed, law enforcement – not a mental health professional - is often the only response available. People in mental health or suicidal crisis need and deserve a compassionate and effective response. To reimagine this crisis, our response needs three main parts: 24/7 local crisis call centers, mobile crisis teams and crisis stabilization options.

988 is the new three-digit number for mental health and suicidal crises, and is now available nationwide. 988 will connect people to trained crisis counselors who can provide de-escalation and mental health intervention services by phone, and ideally coordinate connections to additional services and help in their community.

See the Health Ministry Bulletin Board for additional information on all of the above.
