HONORING ALL WHO SERVED
A Grateful Nation Remembers.

32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Fr. T's Tidbits: Veterans Day

The month of November is a time in which we remember all the women and men who have served our country in the five branches of the military. We remember and honor their service in protecting the freedoms that we enjoy as American citizens.

The iconic American artist Norman Rockwell in 1941 painted four paintings depicting the four freedoms of the American people which are found in the Constitution. Those four freedoms are: the freedom of speech, the freedom to worship, the freedom from want and the freedom from fear. Throughout our history many wars and battles have been fought to protect those freedoms. May we never lose sight of these freedoms or take them for granted.

As you know I love to travel and have seen many great places in my journeys. Every country I visited had its unique character and its own beauty. Yet the most memorable experience I have time and time again is when, after a long day of travel I hear those two simple yet powerful words from the United States Customs Officers, as I prepare to enter the United States. Welcome Home! And indeed it is.

May we never forget to honor the Veterans especially those who gave their lives to serve our country. To all the veterans I say, thank you for your service to our country. God bless the United States of America.

Bon mot: The service we render to others is really the rent we pay for our room on this earth. -Sir Wilfred Thomason Grenfell

Have a wonderful week.

Carpe Diem,

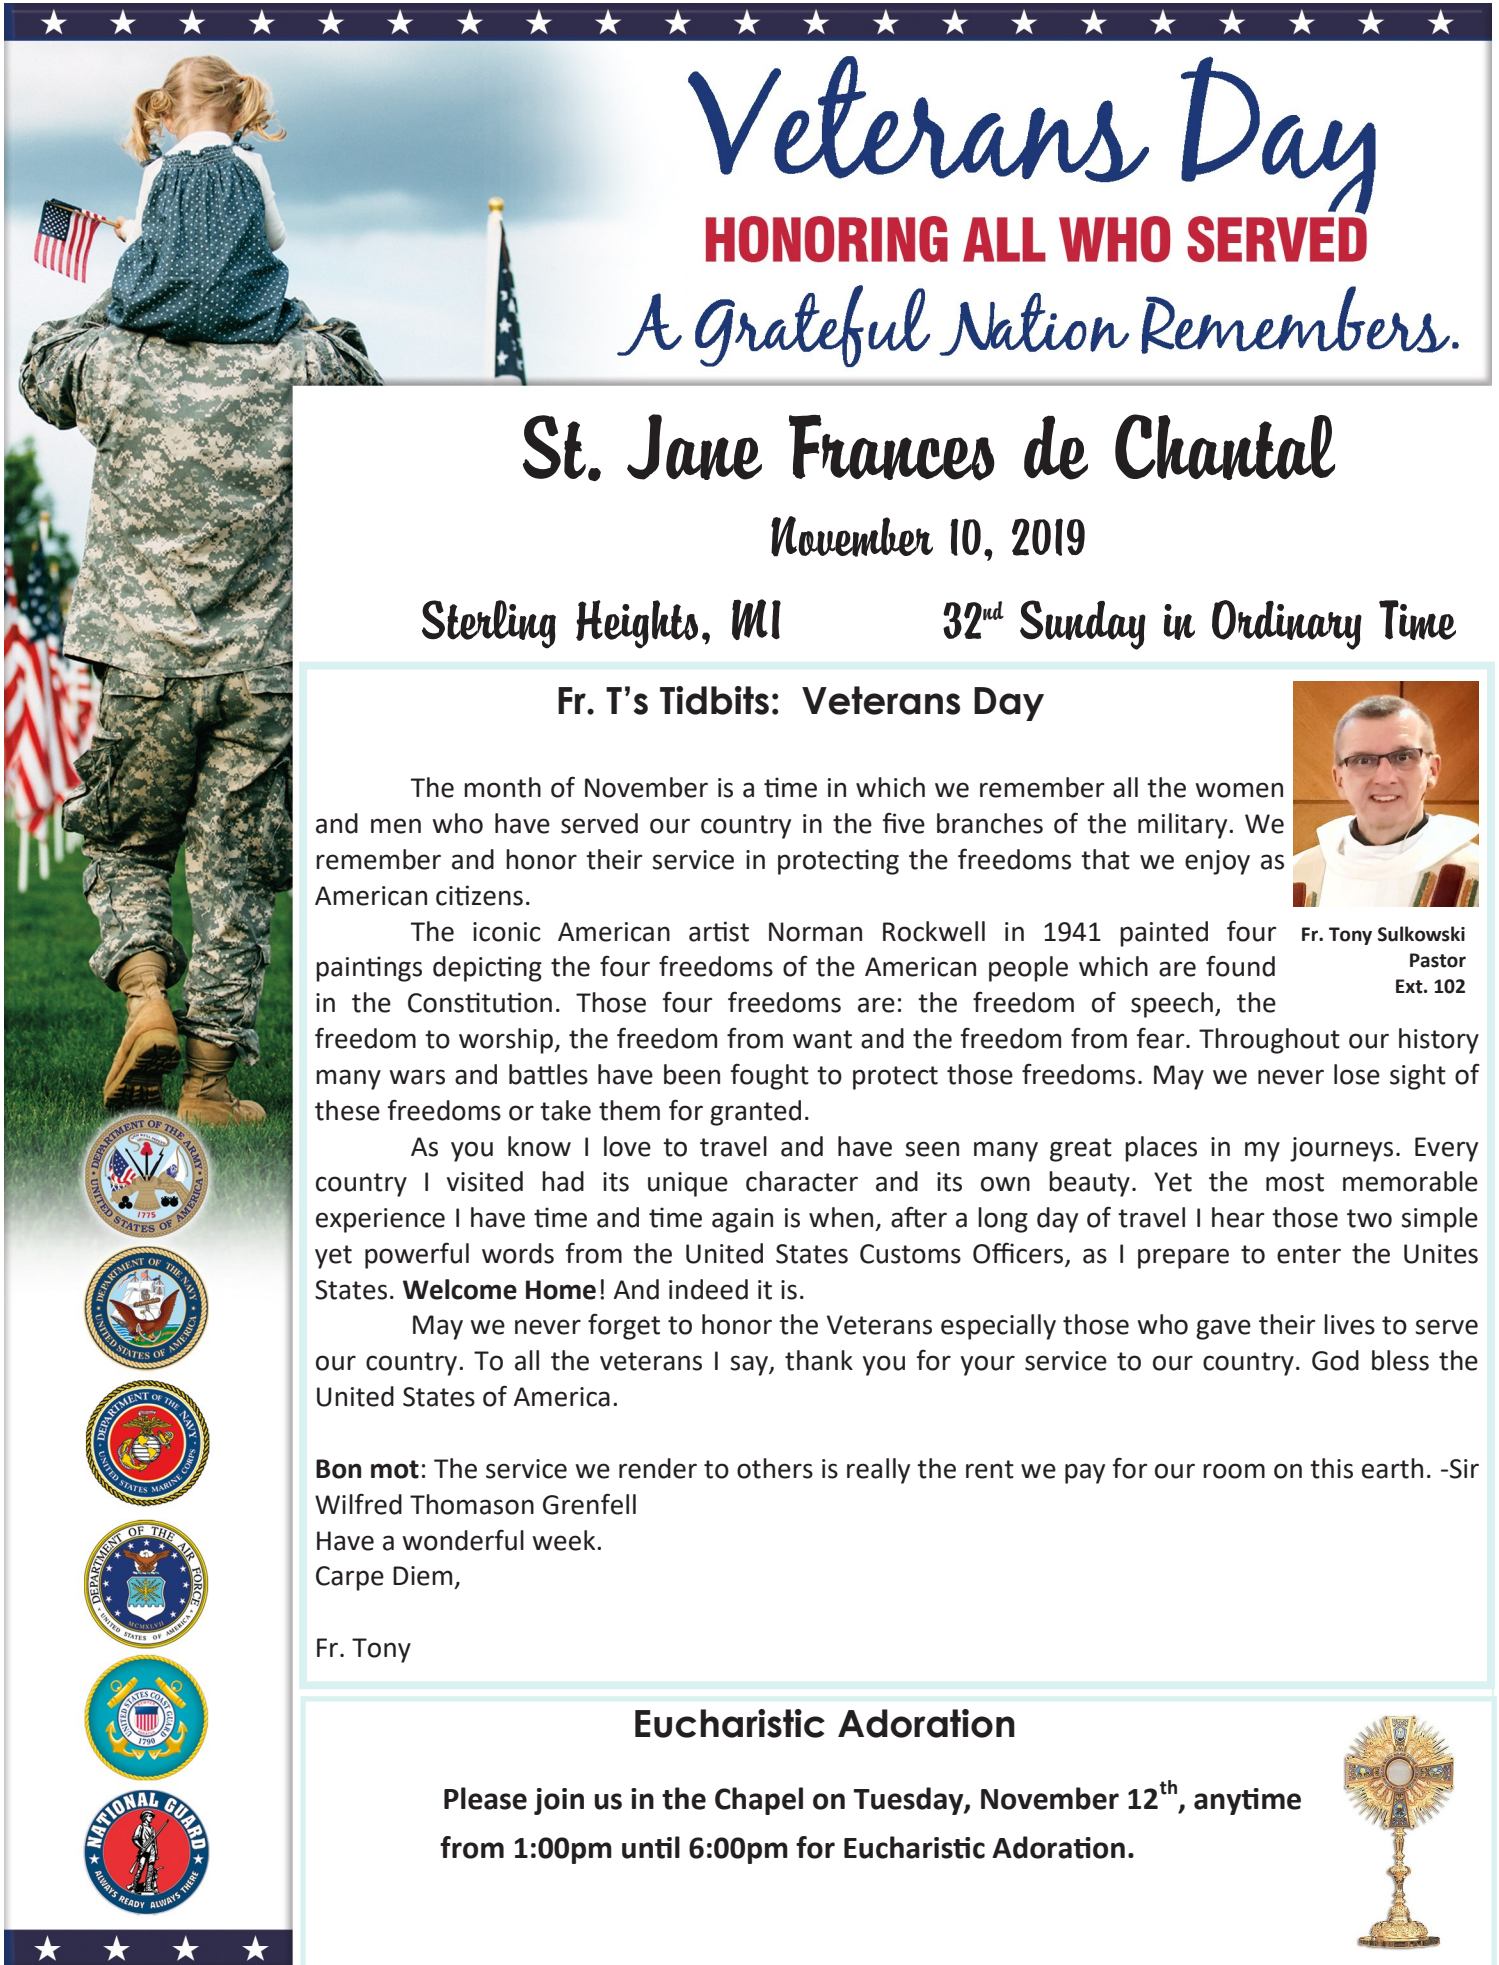

Fr. Tony

As we near the end of the liturgical year (the new liturgical year begins with the first Sunday of Advent), I am thankful for the gracious lectors who proclaim God's Word at each Mass. As stated in the Lector Workbook, "The Word of God proclaimed in the liturgy is a living Word with power to nourish and transform both those who proclaim it and those who hear it." Our lectors bring their gifts each week to help communicate God's word so we can be transformed.

Although we may see and hear a lector for only a short time at Mass, there is a lot of preparation going on before they step up to the Ambo. Lectors read the Word, pray over it, and seek to understand the message and how to best proclaim it so that message is received. We are blessed with a good number of lectors, but we are always looking to add more! If you spend time with Scripture regularly and feel called to proclaim God's Word to others, please contact me for more information. We are happy to welcome new lectors at any time.

Thank you to the lectors of St. Jane Frances!

Music Ministry

It seems as if October came and went in the blink of an eye. The Halloween items you saw in August, along with the Thanksgiving and Christmas items stocking the stores in September and October, well, they have nothing on what we all do in the church music world. Last week I received a planning book that takes me through May, 2020. Some music directors have already planned their weekly music through then! I don't, mainly because things can change in our own individual parishes from week to week and it may be necessary to adjust the music. However, the music ministry has indeed begun practicing for Christmas.

Today people have a hard time making any kind of commitment, even if it is simply to attend a wedding, go to dinner or concerts, or make plans with friends. I joined bowling leagues every fall, knowing it was a 30-week commitment, through May. Life gets in the way and those commitments often can be cumbersome. In fact, now bowling leagues have 'short' seasons as do softball and other organized sports. Why not choir? And that is why I am writing on this topic today: I'd like to invite you to join us...if only for the two months through New Year's Eve. So, if you have always wanted to sing in a choir and belt out the beautiful Christmas music everyone loves, now is the time. Can't sing too well? Don't read music? Not a problem. In a choir, those issues don't matter because you'll be surrounded by many who do. Not all of our members read music, but they learn through hearing and repetition. You can too.

Rehearsals are on Wednesdays 7:00-8:30pm and if you should want to join our Handbell Choir, come at 6:00pm. I'm sure Fawn would love to have you. We have many bells that still need hands to ring them. All you need to bring is your desire to learn and to be part of something fun, fulfilling, and faithful. If you want to join us on Sundays, you are welcome then too: we warm up every week at 8:30am in the Chapel. See me after Mass if you are interested or send me an email at Jjacobs@sjfparish.org.

If you want to see our choir in action, please consider attending the St. Cecilia Sing at Blessed Sacrament Cathedral on Sunday, November 17th at 3:00pm. We'll be there, singing two songs. Other choirs will perform as well. No admission but a Free Will Offering will be taken.

THANKSGIVING DAY AT ST. LEO'S THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 2019

Thanksgiving Day at St. Leo's-Soup Kitchen Ministry

Volunteers from St. Jane Frances will be going to St. Leo's in Detroit to prepare and serve Thanksgiving lunch/dinner to those hungry guests living in that area. Please mark your calendars for Thanksgiving Day, November 28th. This has been a tradition for St. Jane Soup Kitchen Ministry for over 16 years without omission. In order for a successful meal service, we need 20 adult volunteers maximum to sign up. Similar to last year, volunteers will serve turkey with mushroom gravy, turkey stuffing, mostaccioli, green beans, yams, and cranberry sauce. Additionally, we will be baking corn bread at St. Jane to serve with the meal.

As always, VOLUNTEERS MUST SIGN-UP at the parish office. You can do this in person or by calling the office (586) 977-8080 and asking to be placed on the list. St. Leo's has an age requirement. You must be at least 16 years old to volunteer for St. Leo's service.

If you sign-up to serve and wish to carpool, we will meet in the South parking lot, at 8:15am and form groups with volunteer drivers to carpool. We will leave by 8:30am. DRIVERS ARE NEEDED. At St. Leo's, meals are served from 11:30am to 12:30pm with clean-up following. We will return to the St. Jane Frances parking lot around 1:30pm.

If you are not able to go down but wish to contribute, drop off a Sweet Potato Pie or Apple Pie, nothing else. PLEASE NO PUMPKIN PIES.

God bless you for your help in this ministry. Through your participation and generosity, it is possible to serve.

Steve Gadzinski, Soup Kitchen Coordinator

ABOUT THE GOSPEL:

A group of Sadducees asks Jesus a question about a woman who marries eight brothers who each die in turn. Jesus responds the woman will not be anyone's wife in Heaven, as those in Heaven are more focused on their relationship with God than with other people.

IN CHURCH:

Look for the statue of St. Jane Frances, in the gathering area. She is a Saint because of her love of God in a very special way. Look her up on the internet to find out more about our Patron Saint.

QUESTIONS FOR THE WEEK:

- ◆ How can you place God as a higher priority this week?
- ◆ Is there a question that you have always wanted to ask Jesus? Share this question with someone you love.
- ◆ How do you live your life to show the world that God is real and living in us?
- ◆ How do you celebrate the life of someone who has passed from this world?

FAMILY PRAYER:

Thank You, God, for always loving us. We promise to work harder to show you how much we love you.

Amen

QUESTIONS TO ASK YOURSELF NEXT WEEK, IN PREPARATION FOR MASS:

- ◆ Name some things that belong to God's Creation. How should we care for these things and God's world?
- ◆ Do you worry? What do you worry about?
- ◆ How can/does Jesus help us when we worry?

I am not a scripture scholar. I am not a philosopher, a theologian or even an expert in any single field. What I am, is someone who likes to ask questions and learn the answers! I will ask a question about anything. Why do we drive on the right side of the road? Why don't we have roof "rafters", like a house, in the church? Why is the black wire generally the powered line and the white wire the "common" wire in Romex?

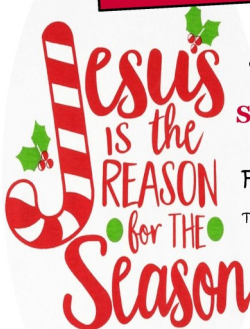

Sometimes it is the oddest things that fascinate me! So this week, I asked, "who the heck were the Maccabees?" of the first (OT) reading at Mass? It turns out that it is a simple (not so simple) answer. As the world progressed through time, the political powers that be, waxed and waned all across the East. The Greek Empire of Alexander the Great crumbled and split, and Judea (much of present day Israel) was stuck between warring states. One side won the "war" and tried to force Judea to accept their customs. The book of Maccabees is written about a group of Judean warriors who fought against the moral repugnancies that they were being told, that they had to follow.

Our first reading splits a story of a single family, a mother and her seven (7) sons who refused to turn away from God. They refused to worship another (false) god and refused to disobey the moral laws that they believed in. Even when their family was literally wiped out one by one, they all stayed true to God, because they knew that God ruled Eternally and that the "powers" of man were only of this world.

People were always trying to trick Jesus! In this week's Gospel the Sadducees (a certain group of priests) were trying to get Jesus to goof up, but their plans didn't work. Jesus upheld that this life is only a tiny part of God's Eternal plan for us, should we choose to accept and follow His Will freely.

Let us be like the family of the first reading, so steadfast in Faith that we find comfort in God's Promises to and for us eternally, that nothing in this world will be able to sway us from His righteous path!

PRAYER LIST

*From the Letter of James 5:13:
Is anyone among you suffering?
He should pray. Is anyone in good spirits? He should sing praise!*

It is our Christian duty to pray for others. Please call the Parish Office to add or remove a name from the Prayer List. Please be aware that, in this age of security issues, we can add only names of persons who have given permission to have their names printed. If you desire prayers for someone who does not wish to have their name printed in the bulletin, please use our Intercessory Prayer Box in the Worship Space. The Intercessory Prayer team will include your intentions in their prayers. Names added to the Prayer List will remain on the list for a period of 4 weeks. If the illness or situation continues after that time and additional prayers are needed, please call the Parish Office.
